At the Central Emergency hospital it was found that she was in an unconscious condition and had suffered a lacerated scalp and possible fracture of the skull. She was about 45 years old.

POPE HAS RESTFUL NIGHT

Physicians Gratified by Improvement; Not as Great as Looked For

Pontiff's Distaste for Food Makes Building of Strength Difficult

ROME, Aug. 11.—The improvement in the condition of Pope Pius was not so great today as had been hoped for. His physicians appeared gratified, however, that their patient was no worse.

Dr. Petacci and Prof. Marchisava arrived at the Vatican at 6:30 and remained with the pontiff until 8:10 o'clock. They received a detailed report from Dr. Amici, who had been in the chamber throughout the night. The other physicians made a thorough examination of his Holiness and seemed satisfied that he had not fallen during the night.

After 1 a. m., when he fell asleep, the Pope had the best rest he has had for several nights. The breathing was more nearly normal than at any time since his illness began. In the early hours of the day the temperature dropped many degrees.

Those in attendance find difficulty in building up the strength of the pontiff because of his distaste for food.

IMPROVEMENT INCREASES.

The improvement in the condition of the pope increased this afternoon. His temperature dropped from 100 at noon to nearly normal. At the same time his pulse was less severe, and the pontiff was able to take nourishment.

The pontiff was undoubtedly somewhat relieved of his pains today, but his organism seems unable to combat the general weakness. For this reason, although the pope was able to sit up this morning, he soon after returned to his bed. Later he again expressed a wish to try the anchor, and was permitted to sit up. He said the change from the bed to chair and from chair to bed soothed and refreshed him, and made his pains more bearable.

SEES CARDINAL.

In addition to the physicians and his sisters, the pope this morning saw Cardinal Merry del Val, papal secretary of state, and Monsignor Bisleti.

URGES GOVERNMENT TO EXPOSE TRUST BUSINESS

George W. Perkins Advocates Cure for Corporation Ills at United States Steel Hearing

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—George W. Perkins, the New York financier, suggested to the House Steel Corporation committee of inquiry today that a government communication would insure turning the limelight of publicity on the business affairs of great corporations and would do much to eradicate present day trust evils and preserve their virtues.

Following Perkins' suggestion, Representative Littleton of New York announced that a resolution soon would be introduced in Congress providing for a thorough investigation of the industrial situation of the country.

"I am advised," Littleton said, "that there is to be a thorough inquiry into all the commercial life of the nation and that a conference will be called to determine the problem of how to deal with the industrial situation in America. It is a project that will involve a most drastic investigation and bring together capital and labor in an effort, without bias, to find out just what should be done."

"GOOD NEWS," HE SAYS.

"That is the best news I have heard," said Perkins.

"Bartlett asked why, during the panic the steel corporation officials deemed it necessary to submit the question of Tennessee absorption to the President of the United States.

"It was simply a matter of ordinary good sense," said Perkins. "Just at that time there was much criticism of corporations and agitation and we thought it necessary to get the President's views as to what we planned to do."

"Had the steel corporation consulted eminent counsel about the legality of this transaction?" Judge Bartlett continued.

"I do not know about that," said Perkins, "but one of our great troubles then—as it is now—was that we could not find any lawyers who could tell us just what we could do under the law."

USED 'HORSE SENSE.'

"And in that emergency," Judge Bartlett suggested, "you went to the President, who is not a lawyer."

"That was not it," Perkins replied. "We sent to him to find out whether, if we used our best judgment there would be a major domo of the vatican. They found his holiness more cheerful and in a jocular frame of mind. He commented with amusement on some of the stories circulated about his condition, saying: 'I intend to get well in spite of them.'"

To Monsignor Bisleti, the pontiff said that he regretted that many people who asked for an audience must be disappointed. The pope, while enjoying his new quarters, longs to return to the less spacious bedchamber which he has occupied so long. Accordingly, the wall dividing that room from the next apartment is being taken down in order that the patient's wishes may be observed, and at the same time a good-sized room for his occupancy be afforded.

The charges contained in the Townsend report to the attorney general about an alliance between the steel corporation and the International Harvester Company, were denounced as false by Perkins, who was given permission to file an answer prepared by Edgar A. Bancroft, counsel for the harvester company.

COUNCIL LOCKED OVER APPOINTMENT

claims a better salary. If you object to them later on after investigation, they can be removed."

"Why not appoint them for one day or two days, and then when their appointment runs out, we can consider their merits," said Turner. "I move that the resolution be amended to that effect."

"I won't second that," answered Anderson. "What if they do for field men Sunday if you appoint only for two days? They work the saturday Sunday. Why temporize on this matter? Why not appoint the men. You removed men in my department the other day, simply because you wanted to put other men in their places. They were removed without prejudice, not because they were not eligible. The resolution stated that, 'why hassle over two petty appointments which you can revoke in a week if there is any objection to them.'"

"I move they be appointed till Monday night," suggested Turner.

There was no second, and again action was blocked. Finally after applying to Commissioner Forrest in vain for a solution of the difficulty, Turner offered to compromise by making the appointment for one week. This motion was carried.

PLAN FORMING OF CONVENTION LEAGUE

A meeting to discuss the formation of a convention league on this side of the bay, for the purpose of securing to this section a fair representation in the conventions and public gatherings, which may come to this section of the country, is to be called on Tuesday, August 15, at 12 o'clock, at 1118 Broadway.

This meeting is called by circular letter sent out on the initiative of H. C. Capwell, Frank A. Leach Jr., and Elmer I. Rowell, and after consultation with the similar league in San Francisco with which it is intended to work in harmony.

The movement is intended to secure for the east bay cities conventions and excursions which will make this side equally familiar to visitors with the San Francisco side of the bay. Many prominent business men have been consulted in the matter, and have expressed themselves favorably on the formation of such a league.

ACCUSED OF ATTACK.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—John Denny, 3253 Twenty-first street, was arrested today, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, on complaint of Thomas Atkinson of the same address, who alleged that Denny had threatened him with a gun and that he had managed to wrest the weapon from the grasp of his assailant.

The return of Rev. Father J. Galli, pastor of St. Joseph's church, Seventh and Chestnut streets, who has been in Europe for the last six months, was made the occasion of an elaborate reception given in St. Joseph's hall last night by the members of the parish. Among those who were present and who spoke in welcome to Father Galli, were Father P. C. Yorke, M. B. de Camara, Mrs. Belle Pimental, on behalf of the Young Ladies' Institute of the church, and M. C. Simas, for the Young Men's Institute.

Father Galli has been pastor of St. Joseph's for nine years, and has gained wide popularity among his congregation. About six months ago he left Oakland for a visit to Europe, which he toured extensively, and the reception of last evening was arranged to make his return home as pleasant as his stay abroad has been.

SECRETARY LYONS RETIRES UNDER PRESSURE

Official of Alameda Chamber of Commerce Meets With Opposition.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 11.—Pressure brought to bear on Frank J. Lyons, secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce, resulted in his resignation from the board last night. The action taken by the secretary is the result of dissension in regard to his methods among the Chamber of Commerce directors, several of whom charge that he was attending to other business than that of his secretaryship of the board.

Lyons has served as secretary for more than a year at a salary of $125 a month. The actual filing of the resignation, which he hoped to keep secret, was disclosed by having Secretary Lyons ask for a leave of absence to take effect August 15. Lyons' term expires September 30.

OPPOSED BY DIRECTORS.

One of the charges made by the directors against Lyons was that he was promoting selfish activities instead of attending to his regular duties. Among the directors who were opposed to his retaining the secretaryship were J. H. Wilkins, past president of the board; E. O. Putzman, H. Anderson, Karl Marten and Joseph Vierra. Presenting Henry Bonenthal and Directors F. N. Delaney and F. Hauch favored Lyons. Although J. A. Miranda, a former director of the board, had charges of neglect prepared to prefer against Secretary Lyons last night, they were not read owing to the fact that the leave of absence had already been granted the secretary.

PROBABLE SUCCESSOR.

As Miranda is now only a member of the organization, the preferring of the charges by him would have been out of order, according to the rules of the body. Although it has been rumored that Miranda aspires to succeed Lyons, the directors of the Chamber of Commerce refused to give the report credence today. C. R. Smith, who recently managed the Fourth of July celebration, is considered a likely successor to Secretary Lyons.

plained by Chief of Police Adelbert Wilson, who has had over twenty years' constant experience in dealing with the "wiley Chinese" in this matter. The Oriental has matched the fullness of his cunning against the white man in this particular occupation, and has taken advantage of all the intricacies of the American law to protect his little game.

"It is necessary to gather evidence before a raid is made," said Chief of Police Adelbert Wilson this morning. "This must be done by men who can be relied upon as officers under our sanction, and who are unknown to the Chinese pickets and lookouts."

CHINESE ARE WARY.

"People who have not had experience in this matter might think that it is simply necessary to break into a Chinese lottery place and make the arrests. Such action is just so much labor lost, as there is nothing in the paraphernalia of the place that will prove that a lottery game has been run to the satisfaction of a court of law."

"Even the purchase of a lottery ticket is not enough. There is absolutely nothing on the ticket, either in English or Chinese, that proves whether it is a ticket or not."

"We have had the Chinese characters on these tickets translated. They are little poems in Chinese about the rivers and the mountains and the clouds, and the beautiful singing of birds. Some companies use the works of one Chinese poet, while others are inclined to the poetic pastorals of another. The ticket is no evidence unless the man buying it takes specifically for a lottery ticket, and can testify that he purchased it with the understanding on the part of the buyer and the seller that it was a lottery ticket."

"There has hardly been a day since I have been chief of police that we have not had men of the department at work gathering evidence, and there is hardly a week goes by but there are several arrests. You can look back over the records for many months and find that of the hundreds of arrests that we have very few in which we have not had so good a case against the prisoners that they were not either fined or forced to forfeit bail. I think the remedy would lie in heavier fines than are imposed in the courts as a general thing. But I have nothing to do with the conduct of the courts, and do not wish in any way to be considered as criticizing them."

"It is possible that an effort will be made to induce the judges in the local police courts to impose the maximum fines in the lottery cases. The usual bail is $100, of which the Chinese general forfeit one-half. It is possible, under the law, to impose a fine of $500."

SUSPICIOUS MEN AT MAYOR'S HOME

Police Search for Couple Who Called on Noy in Alameda.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 11.—Two suspicious looking men called at the home of Mayor W. H. Noy, 1535 Bay street, last night during the absence of Mayor Noy and told Mrs. Noy that they wanted to take the mayor's deposition in a Texas murder case. As soon as Mayor Noy heard of the visit of the men and their suspicious questioning of Mrs. Noy he reported the matter to the police.

Sergeant Ed Hadley sent three policemen to the Noy home, but the men had escaped before they arrived. The theory of the mayor is that one of the mysterious callers at his house was the same man who yesterday accused Miss Dorothy Pimental at San Antonio and Martin streets, and who a few days ago seized a niece of Mrs. H. McDonald of 1034 Pacific avenue.

Although the police kept the mayor's report secret in an effort to find the two suspicious men, Mayor Noy told of the circumstance himself today.

ministered olive oil. Then hearing the machine he picked up the form of Mrs. McDougald in his arms and carried her to the sidewalk. Policeman O'Neil accompanied the car to the Central Emergency hospital.

Dr. Harder, after working over the woman for some time, pronounced her out of danger, and the officer, questioning Paris, decided to take him back to verify his statement. Inside the house, O'Neil found the scissors and the bottle as related by the man, and reported the case to his superiors.

Paris visited the hospital about 8 a. m. after Mrs. McDougald had awakened and she greeted him pleasantly. He arranged to have her removed to her home and she reached the Hyde street house about 9 a. m.

HAS AUTOMOBILISM.

A neighbor told of Mrs. McDougald's fondness for her automobile and of the belief that this had been responsible for a nervous attack and the attempt on her life. During the absence of her husband the woman lives alone in the house with a servant and many parties and teas have been held there recently.

At the hospital previous to her going home Mrs. McDougald refused to tell a reporter the reason for her act, and when asked what she had been doing during the evening, said:

"I was star gazing; just studying a little astrology."

Paris would disclose nothing about himself or the woman, and when asked about her husband denied that there was such a person about. A neighbor, however, was authority for the assertion that he was home at intervals.

It is said that Mrs. McDougald had been seen a number of times in the company of Max Schwabacher, whose wife brought suit for divorce against him several days ago, and there was a rumor that she might testify in the action.

An automobile bearing a man strikingly resembling Schwabacher stopped at the McDougald home this morning and the occupant spent considerable time inside. Schwabacher was not in his office on Drumm street during the morning and inquiry at the Fairmont revealed the fact that Mrs. Schwabacher had gone out with a friend.

SENATE DODGES COTTON QUESTION

Overman Objects to La Fol-lette's Proposal to Come to Immediate Vote.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Senator La Follette today asked the Senate for unanimous consent for a vote on the cotton tariff revision bill on the legislative day of August 16. Senator Overman of North Carolina blocked action by objecting. Mr. La Follette announced he would repeat his motion tomorrow, saying he was willing to stay here as long as necessary to consider the cotton, steel and chemical revision.

A motion by Senator Smoot of Utah that the Senate immediately take up the cotton bill was lost by a vote of 15 to 24.

Senator La Follette said he was in favor of securing a vote in the Senate on every schedule the House might send over.

Senator Overman in objecting said he thought it was unusual to try to fix a date for voting on a bill which was not before the Senate for debate. Senator La Follette informed him that dates had been fixed for voting on the reciprocity, free list, steel and other bills before they had been reached.

Secretary of Local Chamber

Co-Operation.

Secretary A. A. Denison of the local Chamber of Commerce is sending out letters today to the secretaries of the various chambers about the bay, suggesting that they use their efforts with the organizations they represent to work for the beautification of lawns and grounds about public buildings in preparation for the exposition of 1915.

Denison contends that stranger, coming to the state for the first time are specially influenced in their judgment of the country by the surroundings of the depots, for example, at which the trains stop, and by the care shown in the gardening of public grounds, and asserts that the four years between the present time and the time of the fair is none too long to prepare for an adequate scheme of beautification.

Hamaker was detailed to guard him. The two men started on foot and when about a half mile away were confronted by two men in a buggy. One of the men shot the guard in the stomach and tied him to a tree. Taking Smith into the buggy they drove off.

Hamaker's cries were heard nearly half an hour and he was rescued and sent to the prison hospital, where it was said he would die.

Brief but turbulent was the matrimonial venture of Walter J. Lee, editor and proprietor of the Niles "Township Register," who was made defendant today in a suit for divorce instituted by his wife, who was formerly Miss Eugenia Towner of this city.

The couple were married May 20, 1911, and took up their home in the valley town where she became assistant in the office as well as manager of the household. Trouble commenced less than two weeks after the wedding when on June 2 defendant is said to have become violently enraged, "throwing plaintiff's and card case forcefully in her face and telling her to 'get out of the room.'" In rapid succession on August 4, 5, 6 and 7, it is set forth in the complaint, followed a series of abuses which terminated with plaintiff telling her husband that she would return to her mother in Oakland, whereupon he replied that if she did, he "would kill her on sight." Numerous beatings and curses further contributed to the domestic relations and as a result the bride of less than three months now asks the coe and the bonds between them be "forever and absolutely dissolved." Lee is 22 years old and his wife 21.

FINAL TRIBUTES TO OLD RESIDENT

Remains of August Wemmer Buried Under Auspices of Herrmann's Sons.

The remains of the late August S. John Wemmer, one of the best known German-American citizens of Oakland, were buried yesterday.

Mr. Wemmer was a native of Wuertemberg and has been a resident of this city for many years, enjoying an extensive acquaintance and being a leading member of California Lodge No. 2, Order of Hermann's Sons, Oakland Verein, Elittracht and the Oakland Mannerchor. He was the father of Otto, August, William, Edwin, Freda and Tessie Wemmer and brother of Mrs. J. Planer and C. Wemmer of the firm of Franz & Wemmer. His home was at 1706 Fifth street. The obsequies were conducted under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of Hermann's Sons.

TYSON APPOINTED SCHOOL OFFICER

Assistant Probation Officer to Have Jurisdiction in County Districts.

Assistant Probation Officer Robert Tyson of Niles, who is well acquainted with the country districts of Alameda county, has been assigned by Probation Officer Christopher Ruess, after consultation with County Superintendent of Schools, to act as school attendance officer for all the county districts of the county. Notices of his appointment have been mailed to all school trustees, principals and teachers throughout the county, except in Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Hayward, which are already provided with a regular school attendance officer. Parents, guardians or others failing, without legal excuse from the board of education or school trustees, to send any child in their care between the ages of 8 and 15 years to school are subject, for the first offense to a fine of $10 or five days in jail, and for each succeeding offense to a fine of $10 to $50 or five to twenty-five days in jail. All complaints made to the probation officer will receive careful attention.

Children between the ages of 8 and 15 years who refuse to go to school, or are persistently truant, will receive the attention of the juvenile court, and in extreme cases may be committed to a private institution or even to the Whittier or the Preston state school, the parents being ordered to pay $11 a month for their maintenance. The compulsory education age has been raised by law from 14 to 15 years, as in other advanced states. Tyson will not lend a hand in any case until both teacher and principal have exhausted all other methods, and have personally conferred with both the father and mother of any truant child.

EAGLES TO SPEND $10,000 ON BADGES

Every Visitor at Convention Will Be Provided With Souvenir.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Ten thousand dollars worth of badges, to be distributed among the delegates, women and members of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, have been delivered to Chairman John Shinkwin, who will see that every visitor to the Grand Aerie session is provided with a lasting souvenir of their week in San Francisco. These badges are of three different designs, and made of heavy metal Roman gold plate and finished in enamel of the national colors. One badge is for the delegates, grand officers and officers of the local Grand Aerie committee; a badge for the women and one for members.

In that the public of San Francisco may get a general idea of the "Roaring Camp" feature of entertainment during the session the committee in charge has arranged, for a parade in which some of the picturesque characters from the camp will be seen. This parade will take place tomorrow evening on the occasion of the dedication of the new Eagles' Temple, and will form at Grant avenue and Bush street at 7:30 o'clock. The line of march will be down Grant avenue to Market street, thence to Van Ness avenue and counter-march to the point of commencement. There will be many characters reminiscent of the "Days of '49."

In the parade will be five automobiles gorgeously decorated with the silken draperies and the odd banners in the bizarre designs in which Chinese delight. These will bear Chinese musicians, dancing girls and other Chinese characters while heading the procession will march the richly costumed bearers of the famous Chinese dragon. Bands, drum corps and degree teams will be in the parade.

WOMAN'S CRIES ATTRACT NURSES

Victim of Peculiar Mania Imagines Dynamo Is Buzzing Under Her Bed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Afflicted with a mania which makes her believe that everything she touches, even to the furniture in her home, is charged with a strong electrical current, Miss Mary E. B. Leonard, of 1561 Broadway, was taken to the detention hospital this morning.

For some time past Miss Leonard, who is a proper, intelligent woman, has been possessed of the idea that enemies had entwined her home with a net work of wires and were conspiring against her life.

Neighbors have noticed peculiarities, but this morning, when she gained the impression that a large dynamo had been placed under her bed, she shrieked forth, her cries attracting the nurses at Adler Sanitarium opposite. The police were notified and Policeman Randall took her to the hospital, where she will be examined by the insanity commissioners.

Fall Opening of 'Knox' Tailored Hats

A few days ago our millinery chief wrote us from New York that the Knox Hat Mfg. Co. were so pleased with the business done with their hats by Capwells last season that they would continue the exclusive agency with this firm. Fast following her letter came the hats.

The collection represents the most aristocratic hat styles these Fashion-makers have ever created. Individual models and individual materials give each Knox hat an exclusiveness that is inimitable and beyond comparison. They can only be had at Capwells and only one of a style here.

The new models are in the fine French felts, Satin, beavers and plush shapes, trimmed with fancy feathers, wings and ribbons. Of decided interest are the pricings, which are much lower than these hats are usually sold for.

FINDS EVIDENCE OF 'DEATH TRUST'

Alleged Members of Undertakers' Combine Scored by Washington Judge.

SEATTLE, Wash., Aug. 11.—Superior Judge Wilson R. Gay, acting in probate proceedings, declared that it is time for a special grand jury to investigate the so-called "undertakers' combine," as evidenced by the late session of the Washington State Funeral Directors' Association. At that convention a resolution was passed authorizing the establishment of a fund to appeal to the Supreme Court from the decision of probate courts regarding alleged excessive charges for burying those who die without heirs.

Judge Gay's remarks were made in the course of the settlement of a $300 estate. He refused to allow a bill from an undertaker in which $150, or half of the estate, was asked.

"When a milk man spends thirty days in the county jail for conspiring to raise the price of milk to the living, I see nothing inhumanous about sending an undertaker to jail for conspiring to raise the price of coffins to the dead," said Judge Gay.

"If the press dispatches have reported correctly the attitude of the undertakers of the State, it is about time for a special grand jury to be called to deal with the exactions of the profession. Undertakers willingly bury a certain class of people for $10 and King county pays for it, but when it is apparent that an estate has funds the price is jumped to $100 or $200, or $400, according to the amount available.

"It ought not to cost over $70 or $80 to bury a dead man. This tax on death is rapidly becoming one of the scandals of our civilization."

BRADBURY AGAIN IN LEGAL SNARL

Causes Arrest of Two Workmen for Building Fence on Disputed Street.

CORTE MADERA, Aug. 11.—William B. Bradbury, whose court experiences cost him a sentence of one year in San Quentin for perjury about two years ago, again is seeking legal adventures, for he appeared in the court of Judge Thomas R. Maguire of Sausalito yesterday and swore to two John Doe warrants charging Frank Silacci and A. Tonini, two humble workmen, with committing a public nuisance.

According to the statements of Bradbury and of Roy Barney, a real estate operator of San Francisco, the trouble started several days ago, when Barney employed two defendants to erect a fence and railroad six lots fronting on Grove and Railroad avenues, Corte Madera. Bradbury asserts that about ten years ago he constructed Grove avenue at his own expense, on a right of way furnished by the residents of the town and that he was disowned three days ago to discover that Barney had employed the two defendants to erect a fence that encroached, so he declares, several feet upon the highway.

When the constables returned to Sausalito with their prisoners Bradbury, accompanied them, and in court he was represented by City Attorney O. P. Mellon, who obtained an agreement from Barney, who also had been from Corte Madera, that the fence construction would be discontinued until the present trouble is settled by legal process before Judge Maguire next Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

ALASKA BRANDED PUBLIC'S PROPERTY

Roosevelt Writes on Situation; Says Task Is Not Difficult.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Former President Roosevelt has an article entitled "Alaska Again," in the current number of the Outlook. After taking issue with a newspaper statement that during the Roosevelt administration the same course had been pursued as was pursued later in connection with Controller bay, Roosevelt discusses some of the general phases of Alaskan development and adds:

"The government must itself control the development of Alaska, and adopt as the guiding principle the idea of shaping that development in the interest primarily of the people as a whole, the syndicates or other developing agencies thus receiving benefit only as an incident, to conferring it."

"I do not think the task is a very difficult one, if only we, the people, personally and through our representatives, approach it with this purpose clearly in mind, and if we insist that the agents of the government act with an understanding of the needs of the people and a resolute purpose to see those needs accomplished, even though it be necessary to override the representatives of the great interests who wish to prevent Alaskan development unless it is shaped primarily to benefit those interests."

REFERS TO DISPATCH.

Roosevelt begins his article with a reference to a dispatch from the Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune of July 28, justifying the withdrawal of the Controller bay lands from the forest reserves on the ground that similar action had been taken by Garfield and Pinchot in eliminating certain areas at Eyak and Valdez Arm from the forest reserves.

Roosevelt continues:

"The article assumed that I was deceived by Messrs. Garfield and Pinchot. It is hardly necessary to say that any such assumption may be made either with intent to be misinformed or with a full knowledge of its falsehood. I was in a peculiar sense responsible for every act of Mr. Pinchot and Mr. Garfield when they held office under me. They represented to a very special degree the policies and principles which I had especially at heart, while of course there were necessarily many actions I took on their recommendations with the details of which it was impossible for me to be acquainted."

VAST TRIBUTE PAID TO KEEP FIGHTERS

David Starr Jordan Quotes Figures as an Argument for Peace.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Aug. 11.—That $2,000,000 a year is San Francisco's tribute to the cost of maintaining the United States Army and Navy is shown by facts and figures kept by the American Peace Society, of which David Starr Jordan is a member.

On an average, every man in San Francisco is contributing $10 a year for the support of our armament, and for every dollar spent for war in San Francisco only one is spent for parks, education and city improvements. Ten times as much is spent in San Francisco for war as is spent for public improvements.

The average battleship costs $10,000,000, or a sum equal to two-thirds of the total valuation of ground and buildings of all the colleges and universities in Ohio and Massachusetts, or is equal to the cost of 500 locomotives at $20,000 each. It costs $1,000,000 a year to maintain it. One big cannon shot costs $1700, or as much as one workman's house, or as much as three workingmen's wages a year. It will send a student four years through college at $425 a year.

The peaceful cruise of the fleet around the world would have built 500 school houses costing $20,000 each. It would afford $50 a year to 240,000 families. The United States spends 67 1/2 per cent of the national revenues for wars, past and present. This is as much as is spent for all educational purposes, public and private. It costs the United States $135,000,000 a year to support the army and navy.

David Starr Jordan has estimated that probably 15,000,000 lives have been sacrificed in war since the beginning of authentic history, or as many as all the people who have lived on earth during the last 100 years. More than 14,000,000 lives were lost in wars during the nineteenth century.

NO CONVICTION AWAITS PIPPIN

Accused Paymaster Believed to Have Been Careless, But Not Criminal.

MARE ISLAND, Aug. 11.—Former Paymaster of the Navy Arthur M. Pippin, on trial before a court-martial board for embezzlement, will not be convicted, according to local opinion. "Proof of carelessness in the administration of his office by members of the board, think, not lacking, but sufficient proof is wanting to justify serious measures.

At the continuance of the trial yesterday former Paymaster Greer and Captain Newell, both important witnesses, were not present. The subpoenas not having been delivered in time. The session was devoted instead to a two-hour examination of Pippin. The cross-examination was in the hands of Pay Inspector Thomas H. Hicks, fleet paymaster of the Pacific fleet. Pippin came through the ordeal well.

THREE PROMOTIONS BY NAVAL OFFICER

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Naval Officer Stone came down from Byron Springs yesterday and made three promotions in his office to fill vacancies caused by the death of John D. Hunter. George A. Marshall was promoted to Hunter's position and his salary thereby raised from $1400 to $1600. James N. Welly was promoted to Marshall's position with salary raised from $1200 to $1400, and James N. Welly took Thornton's place, with salary increased from $900 to $1200.

GUIDE POSTS FOR SAILORS IN AIR

Army Men Engaged on Problem of Preventing Aviators Losing Their Way.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The misadventure of the army aviator, Captain Paul Beck, who recently was lost for an hour in the clouds and landed in a strange place rather violently, has served to direct attention to the efforts being made by Captain Chambers, in charge of naval aviators, to devise a plan to keep airships and dirigibles on their proper courses.

The ordinary marine compass is almost worthless as a means of directing in the air for the reason that there is no way in which the aviator can determine the extent of his drift, once he loses sight of the earth. Details of the naval plans for meeting this condition have not been worked out, but it is believed they have to do with the establishment of a vast system of base lines. How these were to be identified, however, is yet a matter of conjecture.

GAS IN YOUR STOMACH CANNOT EXIST

With Baalman's Gas-Tablets. This is the most valuable prescription ever put into a bottle. We have never seen or heard of a case of Gas in the Stomach or Bowels which Baalman's Gas-Tablets have ever failed to effect a cure. We know that this sounds absurd, ridiculous and preposterous. Yet it is simply a pity and a shame to allow any human being to suffer with Gas in the Stomach and Bowels in any form when you can get such valuable Remedy as Baalman's Gas-Tablets for 50c at drug stores.

These peculiar Tablets are sold for 50c a bottle by nearly every druggist. If not in stock, tell him to get them for you from his wholesaler, or send 50c in stamps or money order to Baalman's Pharmacy, 324 Sutter street, San Francisco.

OSGOOD, THE DRUGGIST, ADOPTS THE TRADING STAMP SYSTEM
Recent Visit to New York Converts Local Merchant to Modern System of Selling Merchandise on Profit-Sharing Plan---Selects the S. & H. Green Stamps---Starts Tomorrow.
Osgood, the druggist, has created a furor in Oakland by announcing that beginning tomorrow he will give S. & H. Green Trading Stamps to all cash customers. In taking the initiative on this profit-sharing plan Mr. Fred Osgood has done something that none of the larger stores of Oakland have dared to do. The trading stamp offer means that every purchaser at Osgood's, from now on, shall receive free 10 cents worth of stamps with every dollar's worth of merchandise sold and that these stamps can be exchanged for the various articles offered by the trading stamp company.
While on a business trip to New York Mr. Fred Osgood found the largest stores using these stamps and the idea was so well founded and so satisfactory in the East that he decided to try it out in Oakland in both his stores.
Osgood, for many years, has been known as a druggist who sold everything for just a little less than competing concerns and now, without raising prices a cent, he caps the climax by inaugurating trading stamps.
"I never realized the extent and advantages of the trading stamp system until I visited some of the big stores in the East," said Fred Osgood this morning in connection with the installation of the S. & H. Green trading stamps in his stores in Oakland.
"Everybody there is collecting them and almost entire homes have been furnished by those who were wise enough to buy at the stores who gave them away. It would be impossible to attempt to describe the value, variety and desirability of the articles given as premiums. A person by collecting these stamps can get practically any article of furniture or household use that can be imagined. Churches, lodges and charitable institutions can, without one cent of expense, obtain, through these stamps, anything whatsoever and get it much easier than by a fair or charity function. An average family can fill from ten to twenty books a year. When it is considered that one book will buy such articles as hats, dresses, etc., the advisability of collecting the stamps is too evident for argument."
The S. & H. Green Stamp Company has established a show room at 301 San Pablo avenue, where they have on exhibition many of the premiums to be obtained with the stamps procurable at Osgood's.
Osgood's drug stores are located on Broadway at Seventh and on the corner of Eleventh and Washington, and stamps will be given out beginning tomorrow.

SAYS FRIENDSHIP WAS KEY TO CITY'S VAULTS
Purchasing Agent Hutchins Makes Some Allegations Against Former San Francisco Harbor Board
SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Allegations charging the former board of harbor commissioners with having been careless in their system of purchasing supplies in which friendship counted for more than price were made in a report submitted to the harbor board yesterday by D. S. Hutchins, purchasing agent. No action was taken on the report, which was ordered filed.
By way of introduction, Hutchins says:
"I herewith submit to you comparisons in prices on corresponding articles purchased by my predecessor during his term of office and purchases made by the writer since June 1. Permit me to state that I am not at all satisfied with my prices, as they are not as low as I will be able to obtain in the near future on the same articles. In some instances I have been forced to appeal to the honor of the merchants of this city to give me the right price, quality and quantity, giving them to understand that if I find that they have taken advantage of my emergency requisitions they cannot expect any more business from this office during my administration."
The report shows that Snook & Co. had a large share of the state patronage. Here are some of the comparisons:
COSTLY DUSTPANS.
Bought of Snook & Co., February 4, 1911, by Bardellini, 12-inch steel dustpans, $4.65 dozen.
Bought of William Buchanan, June 17, by Hutchins, the same article, for $2.25 a dozen.
Sal soda that cost Bardellini $1.40 per 100 pounds was bought by Hutchins for $1.10. Where Bardellini paid $28.50 for half a dozen hair brushes, Hutchins bought the same quality for $17.50. A cleaning soap that cost Bardellini $3 a case cost Hutchins only $2.25. Hutchins effected a saving of four cents a pound in paint.
Referring to his saving in the purchase of soap, Hutchins says:
"I brought this ridiculous overcharge to the attention of Bardellini, former purchasing agent, and his reply was: 'Hutchins, I was forced to buy of these people by Mr. Stafford's direction. They were supplying the Southern Pacific Company with all their commissary, at Third and Townsend. When Stafford instructed me to buy of certain firms I never asked them for prices and in checking and approving their bills I simply noticed whether they had carried the amounts out correctly.'"
COST OF SAWDUST.
Hutchins has also effected a saving of five cents a sack on sawdust.
Expenses for which Bardellini paid $9 a dozen were bought by Hutchins from another firm for $6 a dozen.
Blueprint paper bought by Bardellini from the H. S. Crocker company cost the state seventy cents a roll. Similar paper bought by Hutchins from Dietzgen & Co. cost forty-seven cents a roll. With the blueprint paper item is the following note by Hutchins:
"There have been informed that Mr. Stafford stated in this connection as follows: 'We do not know Dietzgen & Co., we will trade with our friends, we do not care anything about the price.' This paper is made by the Dietzgen company, who, in turn, supply Crocker & Co., so it is the same identical paper."
Hutchins beat the Bardellini price on ink by 20 cents a dozen bottles and saved $16 a set on hard rubber tires for bugles.
Anderson & Sons of 21 Merchant street, says Hutchins in his report, have been repairing locks and furnishing keys for the Harbor Commission for the last fifteen years. Their bills have averaged about $16 a month. Work for which Anderson & Sons wanted $30, Hutchins had done by another firm for $6.75. In this connection Hutchins comments:
"If his bills in the past have been in keeping with this transaction you can see the justification of suspicion that there was something rotten in Denmark."

IN REGARD TO COAL.
The report continues:
"Our coal has been furnished by the Western Fuel Company, using Wellington coal, the quality of which has been very poor, full of dirt and powdered coal. We have been buying Wellington at $9 a ton from the Western Fuel Company, taking their weight entirely. I am buying now from the Pacific Coast Coal Company their Black Diamond coal, paying $5.50 per ton at the Folsom street bunkers, $5.75 delivered by wagon."
In referring to an item of iron rope clips, for which, on March 2, 1911, the Wright Rowe company charged the state $14 a hundred and for which Hutchins was charged only $3.85 a piece by the John A. Roebeling's Sons' company, Hutchins says:
"Mr. Bardellini said that he was instructed by Mr. Stafford to give the Wright people all their business in this line, as Colonel Barrett, the manager, was one of Governor Gillett's staff."
In concluding his report Hutchins said:
"Mr. Bardellini made the following admission to me: 'I was not much of a purchasing agent; I was more of an order clerk. I had to buy of Baker & Hamilton, Garrett M. Goldberg, H. S. Crocker Company, Western Fuel Company and Snook & Co., so you must not blame me for discrepancies you are making regarding prices.'"
Bardellini was appointed by former Governor George C. Pardee.
Wakefield Baker, president of Baker & Hamilton, said:
"So far as the firm of Baker & Hamilton is aware and to the best of my personal belief, there has been no attempt to do anything but good straight business in the harbor board. We have put forth every energy to get their business, and if we got the lion's share we are glad of it."
"There has never been anything that bears the taint of graft in our connection with the harbor board. Considering the conditions of delivery, which are peculiar in many instances, we have charged the same to the board as to any one else—no more and no less. It has been a straight business proposition. When a few bolts are ordered and must be delivered immediately in small quantities, the cost of cartage is absorbed in the net price, just as when we are selling to any purchaser of small lots."
"A large proportion of the contracts were secured by bidding and the awards made after submitting figures in competition with other dealers."
COMPARISON CALLED SILLY.
"The comparison of prices made at the meeting of the board is nothing short of silly. There has been a material decline in the prices of all steel products within the last year and any comparison must take this fact into account. Of course many things like bolts and nails can be bought for less today. We can furnish them for less now and make the same profit we made a year ago or any other time. Bolts, for instance, are cheaper now than any time since 1903."
"There is as much basis of common sense in the report as if a man were to be made fun of for buying clothes a year ago when cotton goods were much higher. Instead of waiting to buy them now, he would have lost his money. No explanation of our position is necessary."
Garrett M. Goldberg said he had heard of the report of Hutchins, but did not care to discuss it.
Mr. C. Threlkeld of Threlkeld, Blohm & Co., wholesale grocers, said:
"That report does not bother me in the least. All the business our firm did with the harbor commission was the sale of two or three boxes of soap or a case of toilet soap. The total amounting to perhaps $15 or $20 a month. We never charged unreasonable prices. As a matter of fact, our dealings with the commission began during Mr. Spear's time, before Mr. Stafford came into office. Whenever an order came in it was filled and the regular price charged. That is all there is to it."

CITY POSTPONES BUYING SUPPLIES
Expert Jordan Suggests That Each Department Head Submit Estimates.
Recommendations that the city enter into contracts for the remainder of the fiscal year for supplies for the use of the city prison were presented to the City Council this morning by L. J. Jordan, city expert accountant. The supplies include food, disinfectants and other necessities.
The matter was laid over until August 12, when all the commissioners will be in attendance. The recommendation includes suggestions concerning obtaining supplies in the form of statutory for the department of public health and safety. Jordan recommended that the heads of departments should put in estimates of needs for the coming three months.

4 WOUNDED BY PRISONER; HE IS SLAIN
Shoots Justice, Marshal and Spectator and Stabs a Deputy.
CHRISTOPHER, Ill., Aug. 11.—Attempting to escape after being extended to jail for examination, Martin Shadowones shot Justice of the Peace James Mannon, City Marshal John Stakinrider and a spectator and stabbed Deputy Marshal Tom Mackay. Mackay shot and killed Shadowones, whose father, Charles, fell from a second-story window and was probably fatally hurt. The shooting occurred here at midnight.
The Shadowones had been arrested for shooting on the streets after a man named Benges had been injured by a bullet.
Martin Shadowones pleaded to be allowed to appear in the justice court today, but Justice Mannon ordered that he be taken to jail.
Without warning Martin shot the justice through the right arm and then threw a bullet through the body of Martin Stakinrider, who may die.
The court room was crowded with spectators. William Schultz received a bullet intended for Mackay.
Mackay was injured in approaching Shadowones before he fired the fatal shot. In the excitement Charles Shadowones fell from the court room window on the second floor.

WOMAN TO SWIM THE GOLDEN GATE

Mrs. J. M. Desch Is Confident
She Can Accomplish Feat
Next Sunday.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Mrs. J. M. Desch, considered the best woman swimmer in the city, will make an attempt on Sunday to swim the Golden Gate. In preparation for this arduous feat Mrs. Desch has been training under the direction of Gustav Peterson, a noted breast stroke swimmer and fancy diver, and she is confident that she will be able to accomplish the task.

Captain Clark of the Life Saving station, who did so much to help Walter Pomeroy and George Bond, the Olympic Club swimmers, who recently made record time across the Gate, has been advising Mrs. Desch and will be on hand on Sunday to give her what aid his experience of the tides may suggest.

It is the intention of Mrs. Desch to start on the slack water at the end of the ebb, and she will probably start between 7:30 and 8 o'clock in the morning, according to the best condition of the water. Peterson, who has been training the swimmer, will accompany Mrs. Desch.

The athletic organizations of the Franklin grammar school have not as yet been formed, but plans are under way for basketball teams. Many girls trained during the summer vacation and have developed an appreciation of outdoor sports. The members of the faculty of the Franklin school predict an interesting basketball season. Last year the girls' teams of the school played many interclass and interschool contests in which they were victorious.

Miss Virginia Calley, a 13-year-old pupil in the Franklin school, and a member of the seventh grade, has taken an interest in all the activities of the school. She is a clever athlete and will probably display her skill in a number of basketball games.

SEBASTAPOL RESIDENT KILLED BY ELECTRIC CAR

SANTA ROSA, Aug. 11.—Jacob F. Scudder was struck and killed by a train on the Petaluma and Santa Rosa railway. The accident happened on the last trip of the car en route from Sebastopol to Forestville, and Scudder was standing on a curve near Taylor station. Motorman Irvin Ames gave warning signals and expected the man would step aside. Instead he simply turned partly around and stared into the headlights of the rushing car, making thirty miles an hour.

Ames put on the emergency brakes, but was unable to prevent striking the man. Scudder was a pioneer resident of

SELF-GOVERNMENT IS ADOPTED IN SCHOOL

Self-government in the Manzanita school is the latest innovation. The pupils are receiving the benefit of the discipline derived from student rule in the general affairs of the school.

The boys and girls have become fascinated by the new form of school government, which was introduced this term by Principal Lane. Lane declares that self-government in the school is a success.

In many of the schools throughout the city students are in charge of the marching and assume the responsibility for the conduct of the pupils in line during the various drills. Three teachers have been added to the faculty of the Manzanita school. The residents of that school district will soon make an appeal for an eighth grade, which they deem a necessity.

A Knock From Kansas.

Some long-tongued Kansan has been traveling about (or says he has) and finds every country he passed through inferior to Kansas. At least, that is what he tells the Topeka State Journal. His remarks, as we take them, are the customary flappoodle the returning pilgrim utters on returning from a cut-rate excursion which gives little opportunity for real sight-seeing and less for gaining reliable information. In trying to make his neighbors feel good he extols bleeding Kansas to the skies and belittles every other country. Incidentally he lies with hardy mendacity both ways. This particular Munchausen has this to say of California:

"Much of this talk of the ease with which fortunes can be made in farming and fruit-growing in California are the dreams of the men who have the land to sell. No one will deny the fertility of the California valleys or of irrigated lands there. But let me tell you that this land costs money. Four and five hundred dollars and more an acre is what the best of the fruit land brings and then much money has to be spent on it to put it into condition for fruit culture. Then there is the wait until the trees mature sufficiently to bear. This takes money and lots of it. The man who has enough capital to establish a fruit farm, orange or lemon or any kind, would do better and save himself a lot of sleepless nights by purchasing a ten to twenty-acre fruit farm that is already bearing and delivering the goods. Nor will he roll up a big fortune for himself on such a farm. He'll be able to make a fairly decent living. But that's all. If there were tremendous fortunes in such farms that are yielding their fruit capacity, do you suppose many of them would be for sale? Certainly not. But you can find plenty of them on the market. California is a wonderful country, all right, but it's a mighty poor place for any one who hasn't a big bank roll or plenty of capital behind him. How different in this respect is Kansas!"

Evidently this chap came no further in California than Los Angeles. His ideas of land prices plainly came from the one-lung belt. Up this way lands of rare fertility near railroads, and already under plow can be had for twenty-five or thirty per cent of the prices quoted by this wandering Jayhawker. In Contra Costa, Solano, Sonoma, Napa and other counties near the bay of San Francisco better lands than can be found in Kansas can be purchased at prices ranging from $75 to $150 per acre. Up in the Sacramento valley vast areas of land under irrigation are offered in small tracts at figures around $100 an acre. This land will grow anything, and is more productive than the finest lands along the Kaw.

Of course fruit trees must have time to grow, but they reach the age of full bearing in California quicker than anywhere else in the United States—and they produce better fruit than is grown in the east. Moreover, the fruit crop here is more certain than in any other section of the country. In Kansas fruit trees are much longer reaching the bearing stage, and when they do get into bearing the quality of the fruit is inferior and the crop uncertain. Hence California fruit is sold regularly all over Kansas.

Small farms in choice localities can be purchased in California on the easiest of terms—a small sum down and periodical payments for the remainder. Vast tracts of irrigated lands in the Sacramento valley are now being offered on these terms. These lands are in the heart of a highly developed region within easy reach of railroad lines, schools and churches. No big bank roll is required to acquire a farm in this favored region. A few hundred dollars is sufficient to give any industrious man a start in this section of California.

The grasshopper sufferer who talked so loudly in the Topeka Journal probably never saw this section of California. If he did he did not take the trouble to acquaint himself with the facts. He merely unlimbered his jaw, on getting home, just to advertise himself and make his brother redleggers believe they are living in a good country, when, in fact, they are not living at all and their country is a dreary spot, fit only to be the habitation of wicked Californians after they die.

The lords have drunk the hemlock that Asquith proffered them, likewise ate the leek that David Lloyd-George handed them. After blustering over the impudence of the lower classes and such kittle cattle as the Welsh and Irish the nobility surrendered at discretion, but as they ate the leek they repeated the threat of Ancient Pistol: "All hell shall stir for this." Had the lords stood out they would have been beaten in the end, for the king stood ready to create enough new peers to override the veto in the hereditary chamber. So they passed the bill shearing them of the major part of their powers rather than see their number increased by some 500 parvenu peers. Therefore they swallowed the Scotchman's brew and the Welshman's leek, meanwhile grumbling at the affront offered their dignity and the divine right of birth. What Labouchere derisively styled the Beerage has received a mighty call down, and will henceforth be unable to block governmental and tax reforms as it has in the past.

It is about time for the Los Angeles Express to demand the recall of grand juries.

"Bats—not badness—is the complaint of the Hon. John Fuzzywig Murray," says the Stockton Mail. What kind of bats, brother? Prithee tell us what kind of bats? Does our Stockton friend mean the kind that live in the belfry, or the kind that frequent the halls of the red light and commune with the Worm of the Still? Frame your indictment more explicitly else the Supreme Court will quash it.

Dr. Wiley may be puzzled to know what beer is, but what most people would like to know is what a lot of the stuff which passes for beer really is. Whatever it is, it is something fierce.

The Deposition of Colonel Bryan.

The Pasadena Star says the Bourbon leaders in Congress are trying to depose William Jennings Bryan. Depose him from what, pray? When Sinbad threw the Old Man of the Sea off his back, did he depose that incubus, or did he dump a rider who had mounted without permission and was riding a free horse to death?

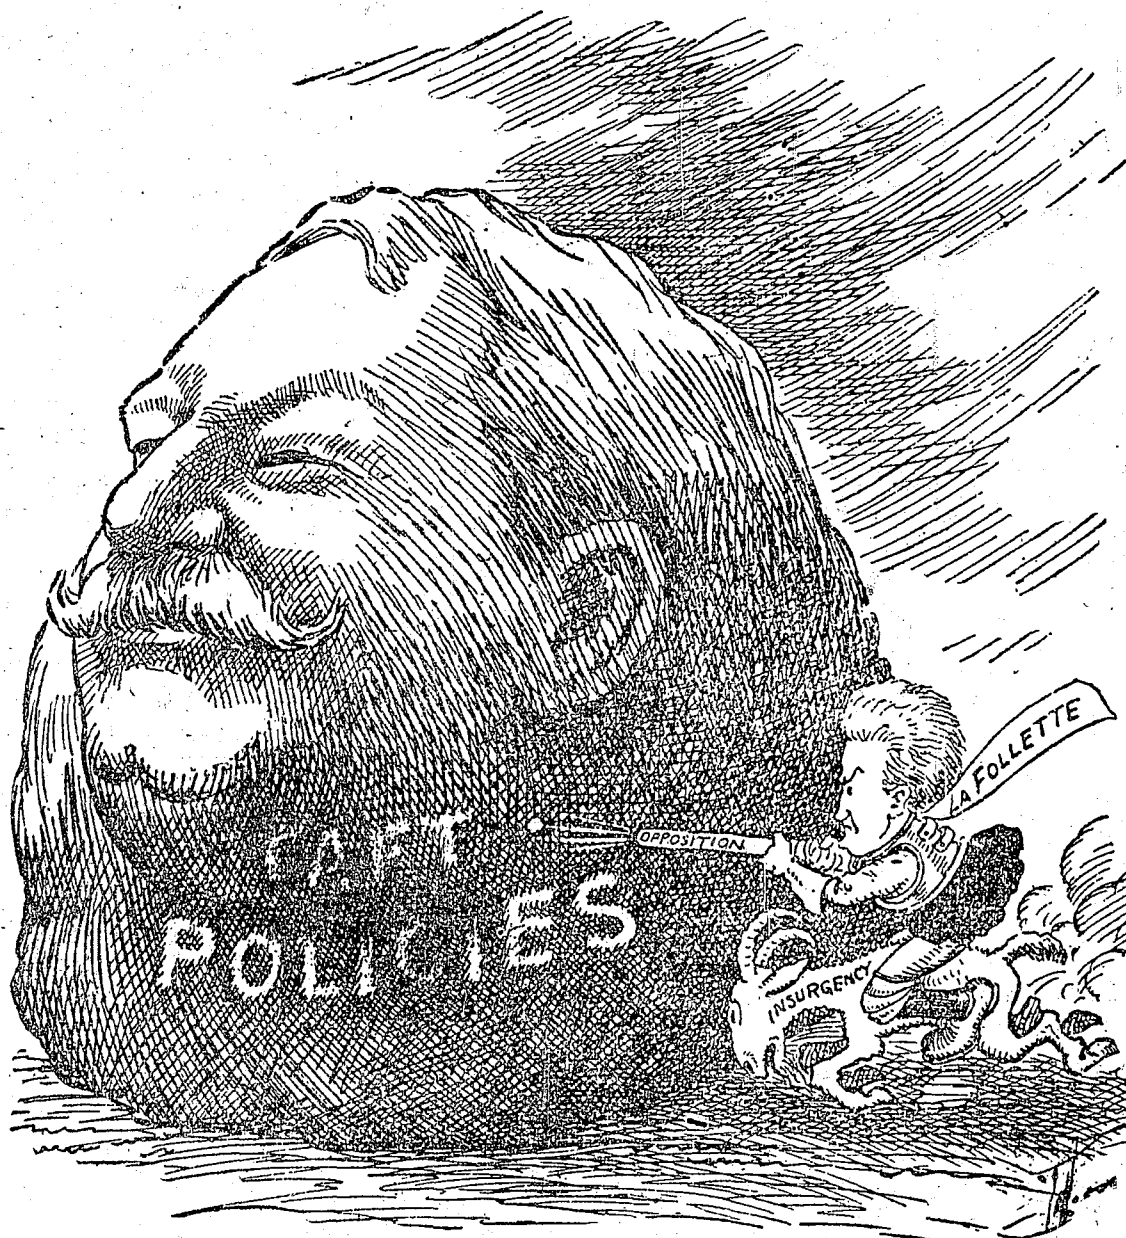

Who authorized Colonel Bryan to issue orders to Congress? Whence comes his warrant of authority? He undertook to give orders to the Democratic majority in the House, and scolded with shrewish ill-temper when his orders were disobeyed, or ignored rather. In taking them to task for their disobedience he charged them with refusing to execute the mandate of the people.

Just when or how Colonel Bryan's command became a mandate of the people is not explained. Colonel Bryan has made no effort to explain it. He is not good at explaining, anyway; besides, he has in some way got the notion into his head that he is the people.

The voice of Bryan is the voice of the people and the voice of the people is the voice of God. Thus we find that God, speaking through the people and Colonel Bryan, is giving commands to Congress. It logically follows that the Democrats defied heaven in disobeying Colonel Bryan.

But there are a few who deny that the voice of the people is the voice of God and millions more who cannot be brought to believe that Colonel Bryan is the voice of the people. Every time the proposition is brought up on election day the people promptly vote it down, and the oftener they vote on it the harder they vote it down. The constitution does not provide that William Jennings Bryan shall be the director-general of Congress, nor does it make a place in our political system for a prophet, priest and revelator. Colonel Bryan bears the same relation to politics that Brigham Young bore to religion. He is running a gigantic bluff.

But our Pasadena contemporary will have to explain why a refusal to obey Colonel Bryan's commands is an effort to depose him. Depose him from what? Is he king, or emperor, or what? Who vested him with his authority and what title does he hold?

Has Colonel Bryan's brain been turned by cartoons picturing him as the rider of a patient, uncomplaining ass? It would seem so. But it appears that even an ass will refuse to carry a foolish rider further. The ass quit on Baalam, and the Good Book says the ass was right. Colonel Bryan is now in Baalam's plight. The Democratic ass is kicking up its heels with delight at being rid of its burden, and Colonel Bryan, sitting in the dust, cries: "Treason! Sacrilege!" Baalam had more sense.

AEROPLANE RACING

The English air race is another demonstration, second only to that of the Paris-Rome-Turin affair, of how unequal the flying machine is, in its present stage of development, to the demands of the papers and race promoters.

The fact that the leader's actual running time, at the end of the second leg, meant an average speed of a mile a minute for 363 miles gives one a thrill.

But how about his competitors? They were all men of experience, with full knowledge of the conditions and presumably supplied with the best aeroplanes obtainable.

Yet of the nineteen who started with him only two survived. About half the remainder had withdrawn, a few had fallen, and the others were scattered along the course, tinkering on disabled machines.

What, then, of good does such a race or the preparation for such a race bring to the science of air navigation?

One of the Wright brothers struck a true note in a recent interview, in which he said the problem was being attacked from the wrong direction.

Contests such as these depend partly on luck, partly on nerve—neither of which advances the science—and partly on the power of the motors.

But when at least a very large proportion of accidents are due to motor breakdowns it would seem that experimentation should be directed toward securing more reliable engines, rather than engines of greater power.

Mr. Wright suggests that, for the good of the science, a limit should be placed on the horsepower of machines entering races. The suggestion has force. Its adoption would give an entirely new trend to aviation.

Its safe progress will be signified, not when three aviators out of twenty complete a course of 363 miles in as many minutes, but when all can complete it in twice that time.

The technical uses prophesied for the aeroplane demand no such speed any more than do the uses of the automobile.

Its value, to say nothing of its popularity, must depend upon the degree to which the danger of falling can be overcome.—Philadelphia Times.

NEWSPAPER CABINET

In the afternoon on one of those sweltering hot days, the President ambled into the cabinet room, mopping perspiration from his brow with two handkerchiefs. About the table stood thirty newspaper men ready for the meeting of the "newspaper cabinet" at 5:30 p. m. on Tuesday. The chief sat down languidly, indicating that he had had a hard day of it. He put down one handkerchief on the table and waved the other while talking to the newspaper men, some of whom were comfortable in the "seats of the mighty," the very chairs used by members of the cabinet. The volley of questions began with the democratic simplicity of a corner grocery cart.

On the table were American Beauty roses, and the newspaper boys alternately sniffed them and fired questions at the President. Over the mantel hung a picture of Lincoln; on the divans at the side of the cabinet table the latest newspaper men with their knees in the air, were trying to "look wise" and dignified, because there were correspondents from the London newspapers to be presented. These English journalists could scarcely comprehend the simplicity of republican intercourse between subject and ruler. Without form or formality, here was the President of a great nation talking over public policies with newspaper men, without the slightest pretense of official reserve or ceremony. The President's jovial smile rather broke off the force of the emphatic gesture with which he struck the table when someone insisted on the necessity of a popular educative campaign on Canadian reciprocity.

The meeting had a general social side. Penfield, the well-beloved doorkeeper, entered the room and turned on all the battery electric fans. Outside, the boughs of the trees were gently nodding as this "second cabinet" continued to discuss reciprocity, the supreme court decision and the arbitration agreement which had been submitted by Ambassador Bryce to the state department that day. There was a report of the tariff commission on the cost of making paper and pulp in Canada and the United States. There is always flowing to and from the White House, a great mass of information and detail which seems to be necessary when economy tinges and largely affects every phase of legislation. The newspaper men seem to cover the United States with a fine-tooth comb.—National Magazine.

A man is sure he's interesting to girls because they are so tricky as to let him talk about himself.

PROSPECTOR KILLS PARTNER AND SELF

Sick Man Fires Fatal Shot When He Is Denied Doctor.

DAWSON, Y. T., Aug. 11. — D. W. Allison, who arrived here last night from Fort McPherson at the mouth of the Mackenzie river, reports that a prospector, said to be named Oliver from Edmonton and his partner were the victims of a double tragedy when one killed the other with his gun and then committed suicide.

An Indian found the bodies in a cabin at the mouth of Salt river, 500 miles from the Mackenzie from the mouth of the Peel.

One of the prospectors left a note saying that he had killed his partner because he himself had been taken sick and his partner had refused to go for a doctor. The details are expected to be received at the police headquarters at Regina during September by the Hudson Bay steamer, which is now enroute to the Mackenzie. This is the only boat up this year.

GRAY HAIR WILL MAKE YOU LOOK OLD

Use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and Your Gray Hair Will Quickly Vanish.

Gray hair is a mark of age, and nothing can be said as to its beauty will set the disadvantages of this mark of age out upon your brow.

Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy darkens the hair and restores it to its youthful beauty. Our grandmothers and their grandmothers before them used sage and sulphur for darkening their hair. Nothing has ever been found more effective for this purpose than these two time-honored remedies, but Wyeth, a modern chemist, has combined the two with other ingredients which makes a delightful dressing for the hair, and which not only removes every trace of dandruff, but promotes the growth of the hair. It also stops the hair from falling out and makes it beautiful.

All druggists are authorized to refund the money if it fails to do exactly as represented. This preparation is offered to the public at 50 cents a bottle, and is recommended and sold by the Owl Drug Co., 12th and Broadway, 10th and Washington and 16th and San Pablo.

FLAMES DESTROY NEWSPAPER PLANT

Louisville Herald Suffers Severe Loss as Result of an Explosion.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 11.—Fire believed to have been caused by an explosion this morning wrecked the building of the Louisville Herald and destroyed the plant. The explosion occurred after all editions had been published and comparatively few persons were in the building at the time. The loss including the damage to the building will amount to about $125,000.

Pending the completion of the Herald's new building, started several months ago, the Herald will be published from the plant of the Evening Post.

FLORAL STORE CLERKS TO GET HALF HOLIDAY

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—The Pacific Coast Horticultural Society, an organization composed of the florists, nurserymen and gardeners in and about San Francisco, has inaugurated a movement to close all flower shops at noon on the day of the convention of the American florists, which meets this year at Baltimore.

The officers of the organization are: Angelo J. Rossi, president; William Kittellwell, vice-president; Thomas Taylor, recording secretary; George Thauergarten, financial secretary, and Donald MacLaren, treasurer. On the executive committee are H. JOHN CHAPMAN DAVIE, NOTED SURGEON, DEAD

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 11. — John Chapman Davie, M. D. C. M., probably the best known surgeon on the Pacific coast is dead here, aged 66. A native of Wells, Somerset, England, after a brilliant college career, he came here in 1867, at a time when Dr. J. B. Helmecken was the foremost practitioner in the city.

As a surgeon, not only in Victoria, but in every city of importance on the Pacific coast, he performed many daring and clever operations under the old system of surgery. He took advantage of Lord Lister's discovery and the perfection of the antiseptic system, and inaugurated the method in the local hospitals.

He was the first to use the antiseptic method in Western America. He was a brother of the late Theodore Davie.

STATE'S PRODUCTS TO GO ON DISPLAY

Possibilities of Home Production Will Be Shown in Ferry Building.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—State Mineralogist Aubrey is notifying producers of structural materials in California that the exhibition of such materials in the Ferry building, in San Francisco, will give producers an exceptional opportunity to make the resources of the state, and the possibilities of home production, known in the most accessible of all places in San Francisco.

The exhibition will be exclusively Californian in its scope. It will be sufficiently wide to include each and every mineral that is used in construction. This means that the exhibits, collectively, will give an object lesson of the greatest interest to architects, contractors and builders, all of whom will be kept in touch with the California State Mining Bureau as much as possible.

The work of making ready for the exhibit has made considerable progress, the flooring has been laid, ornamental arches have been erected and various sorts of work to make the installation of samples of terra cotta, brick, marble, sandstone, granite, cement and all other structural materials attractive to all visitors to the State Mining bureau, who number something like 10,000 a month, has been accomplished.

Albert H. Elliot and Mrs. J. B. Hume Address an Enthusiastic Gathering.

SAN LEANDRO, Aug. 11.—The Masonic Hall was well filled last night at the suffrage meeting held under the auspices of the Oakland Suffrage Amendment League and local supporters of the movement. The speakers were A. H. Elliot, former president of the Oakland city council, and Mrs. J. B. Hume, one of the best-known suffrage workers in the state. Mrs. Hume dwelt upon the necessity for the influence of wives and mothers in all civic affairs dealing with the education of children and for the "enslaving of politics."

ENGINEER VIEWS HARBOR SURVEY

Government Seeking Information on Improvements Projected at Richmond.

RICHMOND, Aug. 11.—Lieutenant-Colonel Rees, successor to Colonel Biddle in charge of the examination of harbor construction, spent yesterday investigating the proposed inner harbor site at Nicholas Point, accompanied by Mayor J. C. Owens, City Engineer H. D. Chapman, H. C. Cutting, Herbert F. Brown and others. Rees was also in search of data in regard to the harbor, and held that his examination not only showed the feasibility of its construction but its advisability as well.

Local harbor enthusiasts were of the opinion that the data which was collected here some time ago and forwarded to Washington to facilitate the furtherance of the appropriations for the work was fulfilling its destiny, but this idea proved to be false upon the receipt of the following telegram yesterday from Congressman Joseph R. Knowland:

"Hon. J. C. Owens,
"Mayor Richmond, Cal.
"Colonel Biddle states that when he left certain data asked for relative to survey had not been furnished by Richmond. Matter is now in hands of Colonel Biddle's successor, Colonel Rees. Suggest that you see him."

"J. R. KNOWLAND."
New information will be gathered together and sent to Knowland, both by the local men and by Rees.

"ARE YOU SUPERSTITIOUS?"

No Matter---Come to the Bell Tonight or Tomorrow and See the Greatest Skit in Vaudeville

Charles W. Bowser, Who is "Big Jim Kingston" in "Superstition" at the Bell This Week.

Chas. W. Bowser & Co. are to be seen in the most recent New York success, "Superstition," at the popular Bell theater this week. In writing the playlet, Mr. White, the author, has shown a keen appreciation for the desires of a vaudeville audience. He has written a well knit piece, with a heart interest bound to hold attention and please. The political boss in the hands of Mr. Bowser is a figure of vital interest. "Zit" the acknowledged authority on vaudeville in New York, says, "Superstition" is the best dramatic skit presented in this season and that means the acting, the scene and the whole outlook. It is an act that is filled with interest from beginning to end. It has a superb setting, the rich drapery giving the exact atmosphere of an astrologer's salon. Mr. Bowser's interpretation of the politician is most ably portrayed. He has the voice and bearing of a ward politician and although Big Jim Kingston is a confessed grifter, you like him for his human vitality and glad to see him "win out" at the end.

For the children there is a pantomime act by the Franco Troupe that is bound to please. It is full of action and fun and of just the sort the little folks enjoy. And remember there are six other features all especially inviting for Saturday matinee.

$20,000 FUND TO ADVERTISE CITY

Commerce Body to Meet Tonight to Discuss Means to Raise Money.

A joint meeting of the special advertising, membership and finance committees of the chamber of commerce was held yesterday afternoon to discuss the proposition presented to the chamber some time ago by E. B. Bull for raising the sum of $20,000 annually for advertising purposes. This joint committee acted favorably upon the scheme in its entirety, and following this action a special meeting of the chamber's directors was called for tonight, when the project will be brought again before the directors for their approval, in order to permit of immediate commencement of raising of funds.

Bull's plan was first brought up before the directors, and as then outlined provided for the completion of an estimate of the money necessary to carry on its current and campaign expenses for the coming year. That amount was estimated at $20,000. To raise this sum it was proposed to segregate the business firms of the city and to arrange a scale of monthly contributions from the different enterprises represented in the chamber, ranging from approximately $200 per month from the city's largest corporations to the regular $1 monthly from the individual members of the body. This would guarantee a definite amount each year to the chamber. The directors regarded the plan favorably upon its first presentation and it was then referred to the special committees for further elaboration and report. This is the favorable report now made, and tonight's directors' meeting is expected to put official confirmation on the plan.

HOODOO FAILS TO FOLLOW WHALER

Oakland Owners Hear of Success in Capturing Mammals.

After a narrow escape from fire last spring while lying at the city wharf when the steamer Captain Weber was ablaze, the whaler Letitia went north into Alaskan waters, and there disappeared to her crew and owners that the hoodoo believed to be following her was in her wake. Reports received by her owners today, among them Constable Bert Hemstead, Morris Lane, Judge James G. Quinn and others, are to the effect that the crew has succeeded in taking four sperm whales and one right whale, the catch being valued to date at more than $10,000, two thirds of which will be netted the owners.

As the season has still some time to run, it is expected that more mammals will be taken, and with every capture the profits will rise. The Letitia is one of the smallest whalers going out of this port and carries but a small crew. She is expected home about the 1st of November.

TEMBLOR STARTS FIRE IN SOUTHERN FORESTS Earthquake Shakes Smoldering Logs From Hillside and Rolls Them Into Brush in Canyon Near San Bernardino

SAN BERNARDINO, Aug. 11.—Smoldering logs, dislodged and rolled down the mountain sides by a sharp earthquake shock, started another forest fire today which may prove serious. Forest Supervisor Charlton has dispatched forty men to fight the new blaze.

The fire is in Devil's canyon, above which the recent conflagration raged last week. The temblor, which was also felt in this city, sent the smoldering logs tumbling down upon the brush-laden floor of the canyon. Flames sprang up immediately and a fresh breeze is spreading it rapidly.

MANY JOINING SUFFRAGE RANKS

Rev. George M. Searle Takes Up Cause, Says Mrs.
Wm. Keith.

BERKELEY, Aug. 11.—That Rev. Geo. M. Searle, lecturer and chaplain of the Newman club, Catholic adjunct of the University of California, has allied himself with the cause of woman's suffrage and joined Rev. T. J. Brennan, assistant pastor of St. Joseph's church in his advocacy of the movement, was the announcement made by Mrs. William Keith, president of the Berkeley Political Equality League at its annual meeting held at suffrage headquarters, 2515 Bancroft way, this afternoon.

"To the men of Berkeley and the state we say 'Don't be antis or anties,'" said Mrs. Keith in her annual address.

The men of this city are being converted to the cause in large numbers was the gist of Mrs. Keith's report. She stated that 35 workers were in the field here and that nearly all the products had been canvassed and showed that the vote would be 3 to 1.

Mrs. Hester Harland, campaign manager, also made a favorable report. Late this afternoon the annual election of officers will take place. Mrs. Keith is expected to be placed at the head of the society against.

The meeting today will be the last annual gathering of the organization if the suffrage amendment is carried in October. If suffrage is defeated in this state the local fight and organization will be continued.

HERRIN RETURNS FROM EUROPE

Vice-President of Southern Pacific Spends Five Months Abroad.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—After a five months' tour of Europe, William F. Herrin, vice-president and general counsel of the Southern Pacific, returned to San Francisco this morning and went immediately to his residence at Scott and Broadway. He did not visit his office in the Flod building.

Herrin started on his European tour in April and journeyed through England and Scotland and visited various cities on the continent. Soon after his departure from San Francisco it was stated he had gone abroad for the purpose of negotiating with a group of European capitalists for the sale of the Associated Oil Company. The deal, if one was intended, was never consummated. The Associated Oil Company is one of the Southern Pacific's subsidiary concerns.

President Besieged With Invitations

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Numerous invitations continued to reach the White House for President Taft to visit cities throughout the South and West during his coming trip, but owing to the uncertainty of the date of the adjournment of Congress the President has not definitely decided upon his itinerary.

The President is constantly receiving appeals to include the Pacific Coast in his program. He has stated that if he could get a month of good rest at Beverly he would not object to including the far west in his journey, but that he must have some time for recuperation. He is to start on his southern and western trip September 16. If Congress does not adjourn before August 16, the President will not get his month of rest and is not likely to go to the Coast. Should he decide to make the trip to the Pacific, the President probably would attend the ground breaking for the Panama canal exposition at San Francisco October 15.

REACHES AN AGREEMENT

House and Senate Delegates
Put Flat Rate of 29
Per Cent.

OBSTACLE REMOVED FROM TARIFF'S PATH

Underwood and La Follette
Differ Few Per Cent on Raw Product.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The full House and Senate conference committee on the wool tariff revision bill today agreed on a flat rate of 29 per cent on raw wool. The committee also agreed on the House classification of wool. The agreement on these two points seemed to remove the greatest obstacles in the way of final agreement, which it was hoped might be reached.

There was apparent a determination to force an early agreement on the wool measure. Threats to postpone the present session indefinitely if an agreement was not reached were freely made. The free list bill, it was said, was developing comparatively little attention, many senators and representatives insisting that it be subordinated to wool.

INCREASE SECOND CLASS.

Under the compromise, the second Senate class bill, fixed in the Senate bill at 10 per cent, is thus increased to 29 per cent. These are coarse or carpet wools. The Senate rate on first-class wools was 25 per cent and the House rate 20 per cent.

As agreed upon the classification provision of the bill reads:

"On wool of the sheep, hair of the camel, goat, alpaca, and other like animals, and on all wools and hair on the skin of such animals, the duty shall be 29 per cent ad valorem."

The La Follette bill called for two classes of wool—wool and hair on the skin being in a second class—whereas the House provision, accepted by the conference, provides for but one class for all wools.

It was learned that Representative Underwood and Senator La Follette, the sub-committee on conference, had been only 2½ cents apart on raw wool. Underwood held out for a duty of 27½ per cent ad valorem, while La Follette insisted on 30 per cent.

The free list bill it was said could be agreed on in short order but there seemed to be a disposition in the conference to hold it back until an agreement was forced on the wool.

In the beginning of the conference Mr. La Follette urged 30 per cent on ordinary raw wool.

Underwood would not consent to a higher duty than 27½ per cent. Underwood said he would accept 29 per cent as a compromise if the House classification should prevail.

La Follette agreed to this. For the first time in history the conference was, on motion of Senator Bailey, opened to the press. Continuing its work, the conference fixed the rate on wool wastes, on oils and shoddy at 9 per cent to correspond with the rate on regular wastes. This was an increase over the House rates, which was 20. Also a practical increase over the Senate rates, which ranged from 25 to 30 per cent.

President Taft has indicated he would veto any bill growing out of the conference. The conference this afternoon fixed the duty on combed wool tops, etc., at 34 per cent, an increase of 9 per cent over the House rate and a decrease of 5 per cent from the Senate rate. On yarns the rate was made 39 per cent, against the House rate of 30 and the Senate rate of 45.

GELDER HOPES BUT IS NOT YET AN ATTORNEY

Berkeley, August 9, 1911.
EDITOR TRIBUNE: In your issue of the 9th, instant, in an article dated Berkeley, August 9th, and under the caption of "Oppose Proposed Bovine Ordinance," my name appears and before it the word attorney, or, to be more specific, "Attorney Gelder Declares Law Would Work Great Hardship."

For my own welfare I wish to state that I am not an attorney or do I hold myself out as one, although I do often appear for people before the council and sometimes in the local justice court.

This letter is written for the purpose of asking you to kindly have your reporters refrain from using my name in connection with the legal profession. It is true I am studying law and hope to be admitted to the bar very soon, maybe this year, but as yet I am not an attorney.

It would place me in a very awkward position, as you will realize, if I should be arrested on the assumption that I am holding myself out as an attorney, and probably on account of innocent newspaper notoriety, when as a matter of fact I am not a lawyer as yet.

Hoping you will do this favor for me, I beg to remain,
Yours respectfully,
GEO. GELDER.

FACES ACCUSATION OF OAKLAND GIRL

Bridegroom of Less Than a Month Arraigned for Deception.

Ronald Hammill, a bridegroom of less than a month, was arraigned before Judge Aaron Turner this morning on a charge of having deceived 18-year-old Genevieve Johnson of 1727½ Valdez street under promise of marriage. W. S. Angwin appeared as his attorney and the case was put over to August 14 to be set.

Hammill, who is but 20 years of age, is said to have made a confession to Captain of Detectives Walter J. Peterson, which may be introduced at the preliminary examination. On July 11 Hammill married Miss Grace Guthrie of San Mateo, and it is alleged that at that time he had full knowledge of Miss Johnson's condition. Hammill and his wife are not living together.

Hammill, who has been employed by the Crane company and who gives his residence as 1121 Santa Fe avenue in this city, was arrested by Inspector St. Clair Hodgkins yesterday afternoon. His bond has been fixed by the court at $5000.

POLICE BREAK UP BLACK JACK GAME

Twenty-One Negroes Placed Under Arrest as Result of Raid.

The pasteboards were falling with a gentle flop on the table, and over a score of negroes were gathered around watching the fall of the boards. Black jack was the game, and the holders of the high cards were contemplating many new razors, rich clothes and watermelons in prospect to be obtained with the winnings.

Suddenly there came a knocking at the door, and a policeman burst into the place. The gamblers made for the rear doors, but were confronted by a second officer of the law, and with the windows also guarded, they surrendered to the posse.

The raid was made by Patrolmen Neils, Pullman and Hall at 1751 Seventh street last night. Twenty-one negroes were placed under arrest, and bail was present for about fifteen of these, the remainder spending the night in jail. The cases were assigned to Judge Aaron Turner, sitting for Judge Mortimer Smith, with the following disposition in each instance:

William Bowers, forfeited $10 bail; Robert J. Winston, forfeited $10 bail;

GOMEZ TO RUN AGAINST MADERO

MEXICO CITY, Aug. 11.—Following the abandonment last night of Francisco I. Madero's standard by the anti-re-electionists in reply to his virtual repudiation recently of that organization, a call was sent out today to all the anti-re-electionist clubs for a convention on August 15 to nominate a new national ticket, of which Francisco Vasquez Gomez, minister of foreign affairs, is slated to be the head.

The delegates at last night's meeting claim to represent 298 out of a total of 357 delegates.

The delegates listened for hours to fervid oratory in the course of which Madero was called a traitor to his friends. Fred R. Wilson, forfeited $10 bail; Charles Williams, August 16 for trial; William Lackey, forfeited $10 bail; But-ball, Jimmy Harvey, forfeited $10 bail; John Green, forfeited $10 bail; William Carter, forfeited $10 bail; Edward Moore, August 12 for trial; Joe Derbigny, forfeited $10 bail; Ben Bryson, August 13 for trial; John Collins, forfeited $10 bail; Henry Brown, August 12 for trial; Orre Washington, forfeited $10 bail; John C. Morrison, forfeited $10 bail; H. G. Clayborne, forfeited $10 bail; Netai Bawors, forfeited $10 bail; Leonard Jackson, August 12 for trial; George Stephens, forfeited $10 bail; John Carter, August 16 for trial; Charles Rhodes, forfeited $10 bail.

Women in the News Today

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Aug. 11.—Jack Geraghty, the chauffeur, and his heiress bride, Miss French, have been located in this city. They were found last night in the home of Joseph H. Harris, a carpenter and builder, whose wife is a blood relative of Geraghty. Mrs. Harris denied emphatically that they were there and closed the door in her interviewer's face when asked where her cousin was. Later, however, she admitted that the eloping couple spent the night with her.

Mrs. Geraghty was plainly dressed when seen. She had changed the blue traveling gown she had worn when she left Central village for a suit of darker material, and did not appear to treat her marriage with anything other than the greatest seriousness.

She said: "I love my husband; of course, I love Jack; and whatever my parents or relatives try to do to break up our happiness will prove unsuccessful. I am very fond of my husband and love him truly. You may say that—and, I guess, that is all for now."

BOSTON, Aug. 11.—Miss Julia Estelle French, the Newport heiress, who eloped with Jack Geraghty, a chauffeur, and was married at Central Village, Conn., is under the legal marriageable age, according to emphatic declarations by her parents and other relatives in Newport. This means, they declare, that not only can the marriage be annulled, but that Geraghty can be prosecuted on a charge of abduction.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Elbert Hubbard, head of the East Aurora Roycrofters, and advocate of the higher thought, is being sued by his first wife, Mrs. Bertha C. Hubbard, for breach of contract since 1902, when she started the divorce proceedings that ultimately were successful.

The litigation now is over the alleged failure of Hubbard to make good on the contract whereby he agreed to give Mrs.

At 19 He Weds Girl of 14; Keeps Secret

BRISTOL, Pa.—Mrs. Edward Renk was eating breakfast with Charles B. Darrah, who boarded at the Renk home, when the latter handed her a wedding ring and marriage certificate showing that he and the woman's daughter, Hazel, had been married in Wilmington, July 15, 1910. The girl was then 14 years old and Darrah was 19.

Darrah is employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad, and when he was sent to Bristol to work under his wife's father, who was also on the railroad, about eight months ago he went to live at the Renk home on Mulberry street. The girl was a school girl when she was married.

YOUR APPEARANCE DEPENDS ON YOURSELF

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright: 1911: By Lillian Russell.)

IT IS the self-reliant woman who is the most beautiful woman in the world today. We have grown far away from the clinging vine sort of creature, who permitted her opinions to be made for her and who was pale and anaemic because she neither knew nor cared how to take care of herself and work out her own salvation physically or mentally.

To rely upon oneself is not selfish; it is the bravest thing in the world when the problems of life present themselves to meet them and handle them from your own standpoint. You may make mistakes, you may go at it in such a manner that your work will be harder than that of some one else in the same position, but every time you work and successfully adjust or settle some one of life's problems, you have just so much strengthened and improved your own character and added beauty to your face.

And then, it is such a relief to get out of trouble without taking the whole world into your confidence. I have never known a grief, or even an annoyance, that hasn't been accentuated by being shared with others. You don't need sympathy. The woman who is always around looking for sympathy has a peculiar drawn expression of countenance that is never beautiful. One instinctively hates to see her come around. The woman, however, who relies upon herself and has the courage of her own convictions, is very apt to be the one who is clear-eyed and well poised. Self-reliance gives not only a sweet expression, but a sympathetic one to every face.

It will keep your countenance free from nervousness and fear. You will soon learn that you only have to conquer one thing at a time and that each time you conquer the next will be much easier. Consequently, you will lose that nervous, wistful look that is so depressing.

I have never been able to see any beauty in the appealing tendencies of any woman who is not able to take care of herself, and I do not think men nowadays care for this kind of woman. Most of the brilliant marriages today are made by young women artists, actresses, settlement workers and business women. The girl who does nothing becomes inane and inanity is direful in its effects upon beauty. Did you ever realize that the girl who does not think, in a short time gains a very ugly expression about the mouth?

BROWN EYES: I am sending you by mail instructions for simple treatment for removing blackheads and recipes for a fragrant glove paste for whitening and softening the hands and for the hair tonic which I have used with success. To remove whiteheads soften the parts first with applications of warm water, then open each white speck with the point of a fine, new needle. Press or prick out the hardened mass. Bathe the empty sack of the gland with a little toilet vinegar and water or peroxide of hydrogen. Sterilize the needle before using it by dipping into boiling water.

LELIA: In the case of freckles the adage holds true that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." The face should be protected as much as possible to prevent these troubles. If your face freckles easily, it should be protected first by using some cold cream and then dusting with a pure powder—never wash. A liberal amount of cold cream should be dabbed on and carefully wiped off with sterilized gauze. Both freckles and sunburn are caused by exposure to the sun. Squeeze the juice from a lemon into half a glass of buttermilk and apply with a soft cloth several times daily. Always use cold cream afterward. I cannot give you the recipes for the cucumber cream and the bleach which was used on my own skin as a child because it would require too much space to print them.

J. H. C.: If you will dampen your hair with a good curling lotion before twisting it on the kid curlers, the waves will remain for two or three days. If you will send me a self-addressed envelope and letter asking me for it I shall send you recipes for a curling lotion which I have used with great success, and for an inexpensive, fragrant glove paste which is excellent for whitening and softening the hands.

G. A. H.: Common table salt mixed with carbonate of magnesium, precipitate of chalk, rubbed together with a small quantity of phenol, is an excellent tooth powder. Massage with it of great assistance in pimples and scrawny arms. To promote flesh formation the arms are massaged lightly with the finger tips, which should be dripping with a nourishing skin food. After they have been delicately manipulated for a few minutes, bathe them in hot water and rub in another palmful of skin food. Keep up this alternate sponging and massaging for ten minutes.

You can do anything you wish to in this world if you are not dismayed and will concentrate your entire energies and attention upon it. One of the wealthiest business men in Philadelphia, a man of old family and high station, was told that he could not sing. He went abroad and studied two months under the very best teachers possible. He came back and gave a recital in which he demonstrated that he could sing artistically and sympathetically. In my own profession I have known women who seemed to have no aptitude whatever for the art of acting, but through absolute dogged perseverance they have become splendid actresses.

And all the while these women grew in grace of manner and beauty of face. In becoming self-reliant, however, one should not be self-centered, because there is nothing so detrimental to real beauty, either physical or mental, as self-concentration.

Remember—The mere act of always saying "I can" throws up the chest and brightens the eyes, while the constant appeal of "can I?" will in time plant the lines of indecision about your mouth and weaken your chin.

BRITISH HOUSE OF LORDS PASSES VETO MEASURE

ASQUITH'S VICTORY GREAT

Peers Officially Report That They Will Not Insist on Amendments

Measure Passed With Unionist Votes and Political Strife Is at End

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The official report of the proceedings at yesterday's session of the House of Commons, issued today, contains the announcement in official terms that a measure has been received from the House of Lords stating that the lords would not insist on their amendments to the parliamentary bill, to which the House of Commons had disagreed, and have agreed to the consequential amendment to the bill proposed by the House of Commons.

Thus will be recorded in the documents of parliament the greatest victory achieved by a liberal prime minister in a century, for, although unionist votes passed the bill in the upper chamber last night, history will give the credit to Premier Asquith's audacious policy.

The great constitutional struggle ended last night, when the House of Lords, by a vote of 131 to 114, adopted Asquith's motion not to insist on the lord's amendments to the veto bill, the purpose of which is to restrict the powers of the upper chamber over legislation originating in the House, and which may result, among other things, in home rule for Ireland.

LIMITS AUTHORITY. The veto bill virtually limits the authority of the House of Lords to a two-years' suspensory vote and greatly increases the prerogatives of the House of Commons. The measure could not possibly have passed the House of Lords had it not been known that its rejection would be followed immediately by the creation of enough peers to enforce the will of the lower chamber, which the government asserts, is the will of the people.

The victory was all the greater because it was achieved with a compromise majority in the House of Commons, over which the government whips had no control. While there is a strong public opinion against radical changes in the constitution even many liberal peers believing that the government was going too far, satisfaction is general that the end of a situation which has kept politics in a turmoil so long, has been reached.

Press and public discussed the result today with moderation, and already interest in the House of Commons. Certainly the recent rift has not done the unionist party any good and in the future there will be always the possibility of discontent breaking out should the leaders show any weakness on a question of the national importance.

PLAN NEW PLATFORM. However, a strong effort is being made to bring the two sections together on a strong platform, among the chief planks of which will be the repeal of the parliament bill and the reform of the House of Lords outlined in Lord Lansdowne's bill. The Earl of Zetland, the only possible leader of the unionists outside of A. J. Balfour, will join the leaders under this policy and a majority of his followers and the bulk of the opposition party will fall in line. The Earl of Halsbury, the most unrelenting of the "die hards," is now too old to take up the leadership of even a section of the party and probably will retire from active politics.

A few insurgents like Lord Willoughby de Broke, and other fighting peers, will always remain in the party ready to attack any sign of leaning to the democracy, but, as they have already done this, the effect will not be serious.

The Irish leaders are confident that the way is now open to home rule, and from the statement of Home Secretary Asquith in the House of Commons that the government intended to pass a home rule measure during the present parliament, their confidence appears to some extent justified.

MAY DELAY PASSAGE. It must be remembered, however, that the lords will still be able to delay the passage of such a bill two years, and they can be depended on to delay home rule as long as it is possible to do so. At the earliest the bill could not be introduced until next spring, and it would be strongly fought in the House of Commons. The lords would then throw it out, and some time must elapse before it could be again presented, so much depends on whether the government will be able to hold out for a year.

An election with the parliament bill as an issue probably would result favorably to the government, but an election of home rule for Ireland is another matter. The number of people in England formerly opposed to home rule, but now prepared to give Ireland a local self-government, which is all that John Redmond asks at present, is increasing, and accordingly, the prospects of an election on this issue are not as threatening as heretofore.

CLARK CHILDREN GO TO MOTHER

Judge Thinks the Youngsters Would Be Better Off With Her Than Father.

Declaring that the three children of Dr. and Mrs. J. Emmet Clark of Alameda were at the age when they would be better off in the custody of their mother, Superior Judge Ellsworth late yesterday afternoon granted her control of them without commenting upon the relations that existed between husband and wife involving sensational charges of affluence and kidnapping.

The matter had been brought to the attention of the court through the abduction of one of the children by Dr. Clark about three weeks ago, at which time he visited the home disguised and took the oldest boy in an automobile away with him to Sacramento. The mother witnessed the act and immediately obtained an order of court demanding the return of the child. The order was complied with but the father then sought the aid of the court to obtain legal possession, which was denied him yesterday. Judge Ellsworth stated that there was nothing to show that the mother was not a fit person to have their custody.

Dr. Clark was accused of having intimate relations with Mrs. Florence Robinson of this city who was employed by him as a nurse. Mrs. Robinson was not called to testify in the case and Dr. Clark stated on the stand that he had only met her in a professional capacity.

POWERS AGAIN TAKEN INTO CUSTODY

Alleged Daylight Burglar Is Rearrested This Morning.

Held for Sacramento Official; Will Be Taken to Capital.

On the issue of a second writ of habeas corpus for the release of Oat Powers, alleged by the Oakland police to be the daylight burglar and held by Captain W. J. Petersen in detinue since last Monday pending the investigation of his case, Captain Petersen immediately rearrested the man this morning on a warrant sworn to by Inspector Richard McSorley charging him with being in possession of a kit of burglar's tools. Bail was fixed at $1000 and Powers is still in custody.

Captain Petersen is awaiting the arrival of a deputy sheriff from Sacramento, who is expected here today with a warrant from that city charging Powers with robbery. Captain Petersen anticipates that he will be taken to Sacramento, as he has failed to obtain evidence sufficient to connect him with the burglaries in Oakland of which he is suspected.

The writ of habeas corpus was issued by Judge Bledsoe, before whom the man was tried some time ago on a felony charge, according to the police. Phil Walsh is appearing as attorney for Powers.

LIST IS LONG.

Following is a partial list of the daylight burglaries committed during the past six weeks:

PARENTS GUARD KIDNAPED BOY

Mother Says She Will Never Let Him Out of Her Sight Again.

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—Angelo Mareno, who was returned last night after a ransom of $500 in marked bills had been paid the kidnapers, was closely guarded today by his parents. "I will never let my darling out of my sight again until he is old enough to take care of himself," sobbed the mother. Hundreds of neighbors and friends congratulated the parents. Nine men and three women are under arrest for the kidnapping.

Further mystery was injected into the case when the child said: "I saw my father at one of the houses where the men J. J. Jones, they took me to the home of my cousin. An old woman dressed me and an old man took me out of that place and started for my home. When I told him I knew the rest of the way he left me."

Later the text of the scores of Antonio Mareno, the father, received today became known. It warned him to keep silence "or no torture will be horrible enough for you."

Fortunately for the fair, the President sets October 15 for the ground breaking ceremony a second mammoth celebration of the Panama-Pacific exposition.

LONDON IS QUIETER

Order for Troops to Come Into British Capital Is Countermanded.

Strike Leaders / Pessimistic; But Food Shortage Is Lessened Today.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Considerable improvement in the strike situation was evidenced this morning and the orders for troops to come into the city were countermanded. Some cavalry had already started by special train to Aldershot, when their officers received word that they were not needed in London. The trains, however, remained on the sidings, their locomotives with steam up so that they could be moved at a moment's notice.

The settlement of the grievances of the carters had a good effect and an adjustment of the differences of the watermen and lightermen with their employers was hourly expected.

LEADERS PESSIMISTIC.

Some of the strike leaders were pessimistic, but the men did not appear to share their views. As some of the dockmen returned to work the bargemen prepared to resume operations. The streets, however, were still without their usual streams of carts, and while conditions in the strike area were better residents on the outskirts of the town felt the shortage of provisions more keenly.

In some districts provision stores were closed because of the failure of supplies and prices of such goods as could be obtained reached the famine level.

Only 25 per cent of the motor buses came out today and the number of taxicabs was further reduced owing to a shortage of petrol. A considerable supply of meat reached Smithfield market early today. The vans moved under strong escorts of police. There was some rioting, but the police had less trouble than before. On the other hand at some of the railway stations the tie-up was more complete than yesterday.

VALUES HUSBAND'S LIFE AT BUT $1500

In comparison with the large sums asked for damages against railroad companies usually by families who have lost a relative in an accident, a suit begun today for $1500 against the Santa Fe seems small. The action is brought by Mrs. Maria Juman and her three children, the husband and father, Vincente, having been killed near Fresno in a collision on February 19 last.

14 HURT BY BOMB

Twenty Families Hurlled From Beds When Building Is Wrecked by Dynamite.

Explosion in Italian District Follows the Receipt of Black Hand Letters.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11.—A black hand bomb exploded in the crowded Italian colony on "Dago Hill" here last night, killing a man and a woman and more or less seriously injuring fourteen other residents of a two-story brick building, which was wrecked.

The placing of the bomb followed the receipt last Friday and Saturday of two black hand letters by the owner of the building. The letters came from Brooklyn, N. Y., where the owner, Tony Romano, resided until seven months ago.

20 FAMILIES ASLEEP.

The explosion occurred about 1 o'clock, when the twenty families were asleep. So great was its force that most of the residents were thrown from their beds into the street or buried under the wreckage.

Immediately after the explosion the debris caught fire and some of the injured were rescued from the flames with difficulty. The police, aided by three fire companies and many volunteers, were occupied the remainder of the night in searching the ruins for possible victims.

According to the police, the bomb was placed in the front entrance of the building. Its explosion lifted the structure from its foundation. Fire broke out and within a few minutes the building was a complete ruin.

WOMEN HYSTERICAL.

The excitement in the colony was great, and only a partial list of those missing has been obtained. The officers were met on their arrival by hysterical women, many of them unable to speak English and most of whom had infants in their arms. All of them were in their night clothes, as also were most of the men.

Most of the other houses in the colony for several blocks felt the force of the explosion. A report had it that a man was seen running from the wrecked building a few minutes before the explosion.

WOMAN LOSES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Mrs. Bertha Sceriffe, 684 Ash avenue, lost a cloth bag containing money and jewelry to the amount of $350 from her purse while going to a butcher shop in the neighborhood yesterday. She had made diligent search for the bag, but had failed to find them, notified the police.

F. B. LLOYD APPEARS IN COURT

Ready to Go to Trial, But Prosecution Secures Delay Until August 19.

Prisoner Accused of $64,000 Theft Is Calm During First Hearing.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Fred B. Lloyd, accompanied only by his attorney, Louis O'Neal of Santa Clara county, appeared before Police Judge Deasy this morning and was instructed and arraigned on a charge of stealing $64,000 of the funds of the Pacific Slope Securities Company.

The defense was ready and anxious to have an immediate hearing, but the prosecution was not prepared and the assistant district attorney petitioned for a continuance on the ground that witnesses had to be summoned from the south. Attorney O'Neal announced that he would be busy next week and accordingly the case was set over until Saturday, August 19, when a definite day for the actual trial will be set.

Lloyd showed the effects of a night of worry in his face, but remained calm during the proceedings, and stood quietly before the court beside his counsel.

PARDON, NOT ROCK PILE, FOR WOMAN

Mayor Settles Controversy in Kansas Town Over Female in Chain Gang.

IOLA, Kas., Aug. 11.—Upsetting the decree of Judge D. B. D. Smeiser of the Iowa municipal court that Mrs. Ella Reese should work out a fine imposed on her last Monday on the rock pile like a man, Mayor Bollinger pardoned the woman today and ordered her released this afternoon, thus ending a controversy of four days' standing between the judge, the street commissioner, the police and the public of Iola and some of the public outside, as to whether it was indelicate to compel a woman to do a man's work and break rock. The pardon was the result of the sudden discovery by the mayor that he had power to issue it.

GOSSIP OF STUDENTS AND RESIDENTS IN THE UNIVERSITY TOWN

HAPPENINGS OF DAY IN THE ISLAND CITY: SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

COLLEGE CITY WILL AID FESTIVAL AT ASTORIA

Residents Urged to Join Special Excursion to Celebration at Oregon City.

NEW BUREAU APPROVED BY COMMERCE BODY

Three-Day Campaign for Spotless Town Will Receive Co-Operation.

BERKELEY, Aug. 11. — The Berkeley Chamber of Commerce, with a view to advancing the interests of the Pan-Pacific International Exposition, and further cementing the friendly trade and social relations existing between California and Oregon, has cordially endorsed the special train excursion to Astoria, Oregon, under the auspices of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

All Berkeleys are urged to give this excursion such endorsement as they may in making the trip during the centennial celebration of Oregon's oldest city.

By unanimous vote it was decided to support the "clean up campaign" inaugurated by Mayor Stitt Wilson of Berkeley. Among those who favored the plan of giving three days to this work of good municipal housekeeping were President C. C. Juster, Vice-President B. J. Blither, Directors Arthur Arlett, Frederick H. Clark, A. J. Copeland, W. A. Gates, E. J. J. B. Hay, Charles D. Heywood, H. D. Irwin, G. B. Oehlert, Friend W. Richardson, Perry R. Tompkins, W. L. Woodward, W. E. Woolsey.

NEW BUREAU ENDORSED

Satisfaction was expressed in regard to the establishment of an Alameda county bureau of information in the Alameda county building, San Francisco, by the Interior, the secretary of agriculture, and other government officials regarding the cutting of timber in the vicinity of Yosemite valley national park, to the detriment of that magnificent playground of the people, and assurance was given that present abuses will be stopped, and the remaining forests will be conserved as far as possible for the benefit of all the people. The intense interest manifested in this work by high federal officials proved that the petition of the Berkeley Chamber of Commerce on this subject touched a responsive chord.

An expression of appreciation was ordered conveyed to Professor William Paulman, director of the Berkeley California for his suggestion of a motto for Berkeley literature, taken from Shakespeare's "King Lear": "How far is it to Berkeley?"

CREDIT TO BE GIVEN FOR WORK IN MUSIC

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Aug. 11. — The appointment of Paul Staudt as director of the chorus and musical organization of the University of California will probably mean that credit toward graduation will be given to students who are members of these clubs and take an active part in their concerts and musical activities.

Members of the orchestra which Professor Richard Scholz organized and directed receive university credit for attendance at rehearsals, and the Treble Clef club and other musical organizations will probably appeal to the authorities to grant them similar privilege.

Treble Clef has had Staudt as its director for several years and stimulus will be given to their work by his official appointment.

JACK THE HUGGER ESCAPES POLICE

Tries to Embrace Young Girl On Her Way Home From School.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 11. — No trace has been found by the police of "Jack the Hugger," who accosted sixteen year old Dorothy Theobald, the daughter of Mrs. Anne K. Theobald on her way home from school yesterday, when she was within calling distance of her home.

Watching hold of the girl, who was dressed close to her ear, "I am going to kiss you."

Trembling with fear, the frightened girl broke away from him, and ran into her house at 1228 Sherman street. The police were notified of the attack and given a description of the man, whom the girl says is about five feet seven inches in height, weighs about 180 pounds and is dark complexioned. He was dressed in brown with a dark soft hat.

Reports have been made to the police in the last few nights of a prowler who has been annoying residents and he is thought to be the same man who attacked the school girl.

WANTS UNEMPLOYED TO HELP CLEAN UP CITY

BERKELEY, Aug. 11. — P. F. Phelps of South Berkeley submitted to the city council today a plan for providing work for the unemployed in connection with the campaign to clean up the city.

Phelps said: "I don't begin getting ready now for a floral fiesta next spring? Let the chamber of commerce, board of trade, and other organizations co-operate in inspiring the citizens to clean up the city and give us Mayor Stitt Wilson's ideal 'spotless town' and at the same time help the unemployed of the city."

Now these organizations and perhaps the city could offer prizes for the best cultivated vacant lot, carrying out Councilman John A. Wilson's vacant lot vegetable garden plan. Many who have no time or inclination to beautify their property or vacant lots in their vicinity would rather pay a man out of work to beautify the barren lots than to subscribe the same amount for charity.

"In this way the poor man, the city, and the vacant lots would be benefited. If I remember correctly, San Jose prepared for its flower day a year in advance by planting flowers along the sidewalks and in all of the vacant lots, and the idea worked to perfection."

JUROR IS INJURED; TRIAL POSTPONED

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Judge Sargent was forced to adjourn the trial of Elizabeth Norman, accused of setting fire to a house on Jost avenue, today because of the illness of Patrick Donnelly, one of the jurors, who was thrown from a car at McAllister and Devisadero streets yesterday. Donnelly was painfully hurt.

TAXPAYERS MAY BE DELINQUENT

Thought to Be Ignorant of Law Regarding Electroliner Assessments.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 11. — That there will be many property owners delinquent in paying for the electroliner assessments with the result that their property will be sold for the taxes is the statement of City Treasurer Oswald Lubbock made today.

Stalls for the electroliner assessments in District No. 1, which includes that part of the city west of Eighth street, are being sent out today by the treasurer's office. There are 173 assessments in this district. The electroliner tax is delinquent October 2. The city treasurer stated today that many of the property owners in District No. 1 were non-residents of the city whose addresses he did not have. That they are ignorant of the recent law making the payment of electroliner assessments compulsory is thought likely. Ten per cent will be added to the original assessment upon delinquency.

The electroliner have not been installed in District No. 1, the law requiring that the funds from tax payers must be on hand before the work is undertaken by the city.

ELKS TO PLAY BALL IN BERKELEY SUNDAY

BERKELEY, Aug. 11. — The first game of the series to be played by baseball teams of the Berkeley, Oakland, Alameda, San Francisco and San Rafael Elks Leagues will take place in this city next Sunday at 3 p. m., on the Grove street grounds. San Francisco and Berkeley Elks will play in the initial contest.

The local Elks have three box men to play for the Berkeley Elks, Herman and Leslie. Thompson will be on the receiving end. Others who will appear in the line up are Wilburn, first base; William, second base; Brainerd, left field; McCoy, center field; Emery, right field; H. H. Brown, pitcher; Harry Sully will carry the bats and Charles Mills will act as water boy.

CITY WANTS LIGHTS IN ALL S. P. STATIONS

ALAMEDA, Aug. 11. — The failure of the Southern Pacific company to install lights in its stations and at all railroad crossings in the city, according to an agreement said to have been made with the city council in 1908, is being investigated by Mayor W. H. Hoy and the public utilities committee who have sent a communication to the railroad company relative to the matter.

A reply was received by the city from J. M. Davis, general superintendent of the company today, asking that the agreement between the city and the company be forwarded to him. Mayor Hoy stated today that the railroad company had promised to place three lights at all of the depots in the city and one light at railroad crossings.

HARBOR WORK TO BE STARTED SOON

Plan to Dredge Harbor West of Webster Street Is Discussed.

ALAMEDA, Aug. 11. — A harbor meeting was held in the council chambers last night under the joint auspices of the harbor commission, the utilities committee of the city council and the North Side and East End Improvement clubs.

The meeting was called at the request of the North Side Improvement club which believed that a mistake is being made in doing the improvement work west of Webster street bridge first, and which also holds that the plan of work will not benefit Alameda.

This club is especially anxious, as are the other Alameda civic and municipal bodies, to have the Alaska Packers' association afforded adequate harbor facilities. The Alaska Packers' plant is east of the bridge, off the north end of Paru street.

If sufficient harbor facilities are provided the Alaska Packers would handle its immense yearly salmon pack from the Alameda plant.

TALESMAN THOUGHT HE KNEW ALL ABOUT TAFT

BERKELEY, Aug. 11. — N. Jordan, a fruit vendor, was being examined by A. W. Brunk, counsel for S. S. Howard on trial in the case of Robert Edgar for disturbing the peace.

"Have you any prejudice toward the dead?" the lawyer asked.

"Prejudice?" Jordan repeated in bewilderment.

"Prejudice—yes, prejudice. Don't you know what the word means?" said Brunk.

A smile spread over the face of the fruit vendor. He answered: "Da prejudice—sure I know him — Prejudice Taft." "You're excused!" Justine Edgar interposed.

Howard was acquitted. He was charged by the jury with the murder of Robert Edgar by chasing the latter's children from a lot in which they were at play.

Mott to President William Howard Taft, and concurred in by the city of Oakland and the Chamber of Commerce, inviting the President to attend the laying of the cornerstone of the new city hall, which is now under construction at a cost of $1,400,000.

It is planned to conduct the ceremonies about the time of your proposed visit to the Pacific Coast. As mayor of the city and on behalf of the people of Oakland, I extend to you a cordial and sincere invitation to be present and take part on this occasion."

NEW POWER LINE FOR THIS CITY

Blue Lakes Company to Run Wires Into Oakland and Nearby Towns.

With their objective point as Oakland, and with an ultimate hope of reaching San Jose and then going up the peninsula via Palo Alto to San Francisco, the Blue Lakes Power and Lighting Company, a new corporation with general offices in Sacramento, is laying a line parallel to that of the Bay Cities Power Company, across the hills from Lake County. At the crest of the hills, at the end of Eighty-fourth avenue, Elmhurst, however, the new line will branch off and enter San Leandro, via Estudillo avenue or Juanita avenue.

Norman Harcourt, chief engineer in charge of the local survey party, says that the new line would be ready to serve power to the people by December.

If the venture proves a success in Oakland and the surrounding towns, the line will be laid through San Leandro and Hayward and along the proposed route of the State highway to San Jose. Four lines will be strung on the poles into Oakland and if the route to San Jose and up to San Francisco is started this amount will be doubled. It is estimated that these wires will carry between 25,000 and 30,000 volts.

A better shoe was never made than "Pingree's" for men, women and children. A perfect fit for all. Senram, 1003 Broadway.

TALENTED COMPOSER YIELDS TO LURE OF THE FOOTLIGHTS

MISS CECIL COWLES, who has been lured by footlights' glare.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—The lure of the footlights, added to the insistent advice of her friends, has proved too strong for Miss Cecil Cowles, who for several years past has been a favorite in San Francisco's exclusive social and musical circles, and Sunday, August 20, she will make her professional debut at the Savoy theater under the management of Max Dill in "The Rich Mr. Guggenheimer."

Dill has confidence enough in Miss Cowles' ability to cast her for the part of the duchess and to engage her for the rest of the season for a tour of the east in the production.

The decision of the pretty and talented girl to commercialize her accomplishments has come after a succession of triumphs as an amateur.

TALENT BORDERS ON GENIUS.
She has been regarded as one of the greatest pianists and composers California has ever produced, and from the age of three years has given evidence of musical talent so rare that she has been credited with being a genius.

Her attainments are not confined to piano playing and composing. She can sing and she can dance. She is also a linguist of no mean ability.

Among her achievements is the setting of the "Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam" to music. She has twenty-four compositions of her own and is responsible for the three-act opera, "The Maid of Japan," the words and libretto of which were from her pen.

Miss Cowles is a daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Cowles and a cousin of Admiral Walter Cowles. She is also niece of W. H. Healy, the millionaire contractor of San Francisco.

Miss Cowles studied under Hugo Mansfield and Miss Ida Wyatt, and her career upon the stage will be watched with interest by them.

WILL SING OWN SONG.
The first appearance of Miss Cowles is to be in a song, "Miss Pale Pink Paraol," the music of which she herself wrote, and with the gorgeous stage setting of light and color to augment her unusual, natural talent her friends do not fear the outcome of the leap into the limelight of the professional rank.

Miss Cowles appeared first in public at the age of four years. The event was a benefit given for Mme. Fabrituller at the Columbia theater. At the age of seven she was giving recitals and playing her own compositions.

An opera, "The Queen of the Palaces," by Miss Cowles was destroyed by the fire of 1906 before it had been produced.

SEAMAN FACES MURDER CHARGE

Second Officer of Barkentine Has Hearing in United States Court.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Charles T. Smith, second officer on the barkentine Makawell, who was arrested on suspicion of having been concerned in the death of a Japanese on board the boat, received his preliminary hearing before a United States authorities this morning. The ship belongs to Hind, Rolph & Co., and because it is an American vessel, the trial is being held here despite the fact that the supposed crime was committed on the high seas between South Africa and Australia.

Blood on the deck and rail not far from the cabin, and the sudden disappearance of the Japanese, led to the arrest of Smith, who was the officer of the watch, by the United States consul at Newcastle. What evidence there is entirely circumstantial.

REDMEN NEARING END OF MEETING

Election of Officers and Parade Closing Features of Four-Day Convention.

SAN JOSE, Aug. 11.—The great council of Red Men today is engaged in the election of officers, while routine business occupies the attention of the degree of Pocahontas. The four days' session will end this evening with a spectacular parade, to be followed by the exemplification of the "Warrior's" and "Chief's" degrees at the Auditorium by Wyandotte Tribe, No. 157, of San Francisco, and open house at Eagles' hall by Wanda Council, No. 33 of Santa Clara, and Minequa Council, No. 43 of this city.

WILL SPEND $20,000.

That the Improved Order of Red Men in California will spend at least $20,000 on entertaining members on the order who come to San Francisco during the Panama-Pacific Exposition in 1915 was officially decided yesterday when the great council adopted a committee report. It was decided that the money should be raised in two years by a per capita tax of 5 cents a month a member. A committee of twenty-one members, to be composed of five first great chiefs and one representative from each of the sixteen districts into which the order has divided the state, will have charge of spending the money. A great wigwam for reception purposes on the exposition grounds is contemplated.

Political canvasses of the delegates came to a head yesterday in the nomination of officers. There are five candidates for the office of great chief; Junior Sagamore, C. R. Winfield; Junior Sagamore, Danton McPherson, John C. Rubbock, Charles M. Troppman, William Twamley and George Wheeler; great chief of records, Porter L. Bliss, nominated for the fifteenth year, keeper of wampum, Elias H. Wilcox; great representative, C. W. Davidson; trustees, F. L. Jordan, R. L. Lincoln and R. J. Passalague.

Britt-Nelson Go Indefinitely Postponed; Oaks Fall Again Before McCredieites

JIMMY JINX STILL ON TRAIL OF BIG BOSS WOLVERTON

Flatter Pitches Clever Ball Up North, But Things Go Against Him.

Portland can look back to many eventful days when the pennant race of the Coast League is over and if they should happen to have the rag can say to themselves: "Gee, but we certainly did have the luck of the game with us." For the second time in the week McCredie's men shut out the Oaks with but one tally in their run column, thus winning two games with but two lone tallies.

It was Flatter who went against Seaton and the Oakland team was the possessor of the jinx, pure and simple. True, he cut in with the base on balls that helped Peckinpaugh get as far as third and he let loose with a wild pitch that let Peckinpaugh score. All this happened in the second inning of the game.

Kreuger opened the inning by working the Oakland twirler for a pass to first. Flatter had much to do with the eventual outcome of the battle. Peckinpaugh followed Kreuger and he rapped a terrific drive to left on which Margaret made a nice stop. "Shacker," lammed the ball into Wolverton's hands a couple of feet ahead of Kreuger, but Peckinpaugh reached second on the play. McCredie then laced one toward right field and tossed to Flatter who covered the bag. Peckinpaugh negotiated third while the out was being made.

With Seaton in, Flatter looked like easy money for the Oakland twirler, but he lost an eccentric heave and Peckinpaugh trotted to second. The lone run eventually won the game.

The game was full of exciting incidents for there was a sacrifice fly in which either a Portland or Oakland defender did not pull off a sensational play.

BONEHEAD PLAY LOSES FOR BROWNING.

If ever a man deserved to win a ball game that man was Frank Browning of the Seals yesterday afternoon. But Hunk Shaw, who makes the greatest number of bum plays of any man in all the land, cut in with a fine exhibition of how not to be a hero to the fans with all the earmarks of a buster, an act that gave the Angels another tally.

Truly, Frank Browning pitched a ball game that was a hummer, and how this pitcher, who has been called the "Big Boy" of the Coast League, ever got the idea of letting a wolverine hit him is something the fans can't understand.

If he had asked for wolverine on Hunk Shaw or handed him a blue envelope, then the fans would have had a reason for his being called "Big Boy."

Two bingles, neither of them of much consequence, were the Angels' portion of Frank when the fifth inning game around. DeLahue started this round with a light pole to centerfield that a blind bat would have caught. Frank Shaw, though, was in centerfield, and misjudged the ball so badly that he let it drop to second. Dillon laid down a sacrifice and Bertie went to third. On Smith's out the called play he never should have reached first base.

WATT POWELL ALSO MAKES A BUSH BOBBLE.

In the seventh inning with two in the hole, because Buck Weaver played bang-up ball at shortstop, Frank Dillon meandered to the plate and stood around long enough to be passed to first base.

Hugh Smith, next in line, hit one on a line to left near the clubhouse, and

Frank Browning, stellar pitcher of the Seals, who lost a game yesterday because Powell and Shaw didn't know how to field a ball, and a few of the fans who saw the Seals and Angels play.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

At Oakland—Los Angeles 2, San Francisco 1.
At Portland—Portland 1, Oakland 0.
At Los Angeles—Vernon 6, Sacramento 1.

Powell went after the ball. Instead of fielding it like a real live wire, he let the sphere roll to the fence, and then tried to head it off on the rebound. Right through his legs the ball rolled and Powell took after it. For a second or two he must have thought it loaded with dynamite, for he grabbed at it like a man afraid of the pellet. All the time "Dinky Legs" Dillon was racing to the plate and made it before Powell could swing Smith out at third base with the assistance of Berry.

Truly, both of them were rank costly plays and gave Los Angeles a game they didn't deserve.

San Francisco got their run in the sixth when Madden hit the first ball pitched cleanly and with some force over the fence for the circuit.

It being a homer, it should have been a one-to-nothing victory for Browning, and today all the fans ought to be reading of how Frank won again, instead of how Hunk and Watt lost for the Seals.

HAPPY STILL HANGS ON.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 11.—Roy Hitt may not be quite so handsome as Frank Mac, but he is certainly having everything else "on" the Spanish. He is a better ball, while up North Mac won because Jimmy Jinx was on the Oaks' ball-stuttering exhibition of Wiggins.

The Tigers made seven hits off Arelaines in seven innings while Hitt allowed the same number of safeties in nine rounds. The Senators bunched three of their hits in the eighth, when they scored their only run, and but for a queer play by Hopp, together with a Merkle-like stunt by Shinn, they might have caused real trouble in this act.

In other innings Hitt breezed along with the visitors so meek and docile that their friends could scarcely recognize them.

FRESNO GETS GOOD AND WON'T HAVE FIGHT PICTURES

FRESNO, Aug. 11.—After the officials of Fresno city and county had apparently forgotten the turmoil of a rule against showing prizefight pictures, Chief of Police Shaw has issued an order forbidding the exhibiting of prizefight pictures in this city.

Joe Fazen, of San Francisco, came here to arrange for the display, but his negotiations have been vetoed in spite of a plea that the pictures have been shown in half a dozen other California cities.

MOTOR BOATS SAFE IN RACE

PULLEY BAY, Ont., Aug. 11.—All the motor boats in the Scripps reliability cruise Detroit to Chatham, Ontario, and Port Huron, Michigan, thence to Buffalo and return, reached here in good condition last night, well within the time limit, and are scheduled to take the boats to Toledo.

A gold pin was presented to H. G. Heydorn for the highest score in the individual contest during July. The record was 210. He passed that mark by bowling 222 in the August contest.

NATIONAL LEAGUE

CHICAGO, Aug. 11.—The Cubs regained the lead in the pennant race by defeating St. Louis, 4 to 3, in the ninth inning.

The game which was one of the best played this year on the grounds, was chiefly featured by the all round fielding of the Cubs. The record was 210. He passed that mark by bowling 222 in the August contest.

The standing of the teams is now as follows:

Teams	Won	Lost	Pct.
Chicago	7	10	.412
St. Louis	6	11	.353
Batteries—Richer, Curtis, Brown and Archer; Salove, Woodburn, Landemilk and Ellis.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 11.—The Phillies checked the winning streak of the Pirates by winning out, 4 to 3, in the ninth inning when Miller slipped up on Robert's smash and Carey misjudged a high fly by Landemilk.

The game was a close one, with the Phillies leading 3 to 2 in the eighth inning. The Pirates tied the game in the ninth on a home run by Carey.

Batteries—Richer, Curtis, Brown and Archer; Salove, Woodburn, Landemilk and Ellis.

One More Record Goes to Smash at Grand Circuit Meet

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 11.—Another record was smashed at the North Randall Grand Circuit races. The three miles of the free-for-all championship race, with such speeders as Independence Boy, Earl Jr., The Ed and Evelyn continuing, were paced respectively in 2:01 1/2, 2:02 1/2, 2:03 1/2, a world's record for pacing three heats in a race.

It was announced late in the afternoon that Hitt, instead of attacking the world's trotting record to sulky tomorrow, the closing day of the meeting, would try to lower the world's trotting record for the half mile to a wagon, in the open.

CLEVER REINSMEN AT WOODLAND PLEASE LARGE CROWD

WOODLAND, Aug. 11.—Panama-Pacific exposition day was an afternoon of surprises and the calculations of expected horsemen who have been following the circuit for years were upset in every race.

Matawan, George Warlaw's grand 3-year-old trotter, was picked as a certain in the first event, but Adansel, an outsider, owned and hired by Melkofer of this city, took the race in three straight heats. Vera Hal, according to the wise ones, had a clinch on first money in the 2:10 pace, but George Woodard, Bill Merrill's entry, took the race after three of the most exciting heats of the day. Vera Hal capturing second money.

In the judges' stand Frank Ruhstaller of Sacramento, Dr. W. N. Nash of 2:10, Jose and Thad Spaulding of Woodland, presided.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR A BRITT-NELSON GO CALLED OFF

Untimely Death of Battler's Mother Changes His Future Plans.

The untimely death of Mrs. Nelson, mother of Oscar Battling Nelson, who occurred at Hammond, Ill., yesterday has tended to end all negotiations for time being that Jimmy Coffroth had under way for a Britt-Nelson boxing match in San Francisco this month.

The former champion of the world will leave at once for Chicago and will probably pass through San Francisco on his way to the Windy City from Medford, Oregon.

Up to the time of the news that Mrs. Nelson had been killed prospects for the veteran bruiser entering the roped arena were extremely bright. Nelson had been in communication with Coffroth and his message to the San Francisco promoter was a most encouraging one.

Whether he will forego the August match remains to be seen.

RITCHIE AND MCCARTHY ARE FIT.

Willie Ritchie and Johnny McCarthy are both out this evening at Dreamland Rink. Matchmaker Eddie Powers has brought out a couple of well-matched lightweight, and although Ritchie is giving away weight to his opponent, he expects to make a good fight.

McCarthy, who has been in the United States for some time, is ambitious to make more important matches in the professional game, and because of that his bout this evening means a good deal to him.

From the fall of matching Knockout Brown and Matt Wells for New York, it looks as if Brown and his manager have been more important matches in the professional game, and because of that his bout this evening means a good deal to him.

TOM O'DAY COMING HOME.

Tom O'Day, advance man for the Million T. Clark Amusement company in the east, is due back in San Francisco any day now. Clark is waiting patiently for more important matches in the professional game, and because of that his bout this evening means a good deal to him.

EDDIE DENNIS WANTS A MATCH.

Eddie Dennis, the San Francisco featherweight, has reached New York, but from what he has planned to do, it is definite. He was introduced to the New York sporting followers at a recent show. He is planning to make a match with the French and other of the European countries before he returns home.

Rivers' Dry Up and Crops Are Damaged by Excessive Heat.

Berlin, Aug. 11.—The heated term which has continued for ten days, breaking all German records, is unabated throughout Germany and during the last few days the temperature has been higher than before. Deaths from sunstroke are reported from all sections.

A water famine threatens some districts, where the brooks are drying up. In the Bifel region the farmers have been forced to haul water for miles. Fish are dying on the river bed there and in Westphalia. Navigation on the chief streams has been almost suspended owing to the low water.

The Rhine at Rudesheim is lower than it has been since 1811. Passenger steamers on the Elbe have suspended service through the region above Dresden. Serious effects are apprehended on the clover, hay, potato crops, which are suffering greatly from a lack of moisture.

Cases of persons becoming insane because of the heat are reported. The picture galleries in the German museum at Neuremburg have been temporarily closed and the pictures stored in cool rooms to prevent fading, cracking and warping of wooden panels threatened their ruin. The thermometer on side streets of Berlin registered 99 in the shade today.

YOUNG CLERK HAS WIFE TOO MANY

Percy Williams of East Oakland Gets in Wrong in His Affections.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11.—Two women believe they are the wife of Percy W. Williams, a tariff clerk in the office of the Southern Pacific railway in the Flood block. The first and older of the two claims to be the wife of Williams' name for the last five years and has resided over a pretty little home at 643 East Twenty-first street, Oakland. The second marriage is a matter of only five days, and took place while the first wife was on a visit to friends in Woodland. The young woman was Miss Annette Vivian Hunn, an adding machine operator in the same company's office. Williams, it is alleged, made love to such advantage that he persuaded the young woman to accompany him to San Rafael Sunday afternoon last, where the ceremony of marriage was performed by the Rev. Arthur Crosby, principal of Mount Tamalpais Military academy. Tuesday Williams informed the young woman that he was already married and that his wife would be home following today.

Williams has been working for the Southern Pacific Company as a tariff clerk for six months, although Miss Hunn has been in the office for several years. He met her about three weeks ago, she says, but never more than spoke to her until last Wednesday. She is heartbroken at the discovery of another wife, but in the midst of her grief swears revenge through the criminal courts.

The first Mrs. Williams, who returned to Oakland Wednesday, said that she believes her husband is insane from drink and was not capable of knowing what he was doing. She often spoke of committing suicide, but that she knew how to handle him and they had lived happily together. Williams is about 28 years old.

The second Mrs. Williams, who is just a little girl with a great mass of wavy brown hair, has not yet recovered from the shock of the awakening. "I am so bewildered," she said last night, "that I scarcely know what I am doing. I have no idea just what I want to do to him, but I can swear out a warrant against him in the morning, and I certainly am not going to let him get away."

HAYMAN TO QUIT THEATRICAL WORK

Prominent Business Manager to Retire and Make His Home Abroad.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—It is announced that A. L. Hayman, for twenty years the most important financial figure in the American theatrical world, will retire from active business and henceforth make his home abroad. Hayman's name is almost unknown to the general public, but with the profession he has been a factor of the greatest importance. He was the wealthiest individual in the theatrical syndicate, all his interests in which have been transferred to his brother, Alf Hayman.

Hayman appeared as a theatrical promoter in 1883 in San Francisco. Six years later he began operations in New York and assumed control of the Columbia theater, Chicago, starting a chain of theaters that proved the most important feature on the theatrical syndicate, organized in the '90s. The organization of the syndicate brought together Hayman, Chas. Froham, Klaw and Erlanger and Nixop and Zimmerman.

PUT BLAME ON SHIP'S OFFICERS

Charges of Negligence Against Captain and Mate Made by Federal Inspectors.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 11. — Captain J. O. Faria and Third Officer E. J. Thomas were charged yesterday with responsibility for the disaster of the liner Santa Rosa, which was wrecked on the shoals of Saddle Rock, Point Arguello, in the early morning of July 1. Formal accusations of negligence were filed against the officers by Supervising Inspectors of Hulls and Boilers Bolles and Bulger, and the cases will be taken up at 9:30 Monday morning in this city.

As an outcome of the trials and the extensive preliminary investigation of Inspectors Bolles and Bulger, it is believed that regulations will be established by the government prohibiting coast passenger vessels from rugged shores. Investigations of all coast wrecks of the past decade have shown that disasters, due to carelessness of officers at the wheel, have resulted from the habit of clinging to the coast.

DEFECTIVE SAFETY DEVICES.

Another point which is expected to be developed in the investigation is the regulation of water tight compartments of coast vessels. Four small compartments are now required but the large areas between them on nearly all vessels plying in the coast passenger service renders the safety compartments practically valueless in the event of the vessel being pierced or torn between them.

The charges against Captain Faria and Third Mate Thomas were prepared secretly yesterday afternoon at the office of Supervising Inspector Bolles and dispatched in the evening mail. At the same time summons were sent out for a large number of witnesses, the majority of whom testified before the recent preliminary examination.

WIRELESS INVESTIGATION.

Whether or not the inspectors will take any action against the Pacific Coast Steamship company officials in regard to the wireless bargeing over human lives will be decided through the trials of Captain Faria and Third Officer Thomas. After deliberations the inspectors decided that the preliminary investigation, when the wireless messages exchanged between the company's office and the Santa Rosa and between the Centralia and the wrecked vessel were shown, did not bring up the technical point of a violation within the jurisdiction of the government inspectors.

WIRELESS OFFICIALS MUST SERVE TERMS

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The United States Court of Appeals yesterday denied the appeals of O. C. Wilson, president of the United Wireless Company; Francis K. Butler, counsel and director; and W. W. Tompkins, head of the agency which disposed of the United Wireless stock, and confirmed their sentences. The three men, with others, were convicted of using the mails to defraud creditors and investors, and were sentenced to imprisonment in the federal prison at Atlanta.

WOMEN AND CHILDREN STARVE AWAITING PAY

MARYSVILLE, Aug. 11. — Twenty-three Mexicans, 11 adults and 12 children were found dying from starvation in a tent on the Cohn tract, a mile and a half south of town. The men in the party have been working for a logging company, but have not received their first pay checks. The members of their families have been short of food for several days, but all hoped to stick it out until the first checks arrived.

The adults have been starving eight days. The children were given what little food could be obtained. Food has been sent to the party and Dr. J. H. Kaufman is looking after them.

For bowel complaints in children always give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil. It is certain to effect a cure and when reduced with water and sweetened is pleasant to take. No physician can prescribe a better remedy. For sale by Osgood, Bros. Drug Store.
